Dirksen Blessing To Cuts

Says Congress Eying Deeper Expense Slash

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen gave a GOP blessing today to President Johnson's plan to reduce U.S. spending by $3 billion—with the reservation that Congress may cut even deeper.

Dirksen said in an interview the $5.3 billion hold-down on administration programs — calculated to clip more than $3 billion in actual spending in the current fiscal year which ends next June 30 — tallies with figures congressional leaders were given at a conference at Johnson's Texas ranch last Friday.

The President did not detail in his announcement in Austin Tuesday where the cuts will be made. But Dirksen said he expects the presidential pruning knife to fall heaviest on the anti-poverty and public works programs — including highways — and on foreign aid.

Dirksen avoided joining former Vice President Richard M. Nixon in contending that Johnson was reading with a turn to the right the Nov. 8 election returns in which Republicans picked up 47 House seats, 3 Senate posts and increased their governorships from 17 to 25, with one still in doubt.

"Let's just say," Dirksen chuckled, "that the President is being realistic."

Johnson told a news conference Tuesday that expenditures will be sliced in a variety of ways. He said these would include not asking Congress to appropriate money for some programs already authorized. He said there will be a stretch-out in others and some cancellation of contracts.

In the Austin news conference, Johnson called the economy strong. He said the "prudent

Close-Up Photo Released

Scattered Small Fights Reported Across Nation

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Scattered small fighting flickered across South Viet Nam today as the seven allied nations announced they would observe short truces at Christmas and New Year's and over the Vietnamese New Year in February.

While the relative lull in ground fighting carried through a fourth day, Vietnamese troops reported freeing 14 Vietnamese civilians from a Viet Cong prison camp in the Mekong Delta.

Vietnamese headquarters said the Viet Cong murdered four other civilians in the camp and that one of the liberated prisoners died of wounds after being freed.

U.S. headquarters reported a mistaken artillery shelling by a unit of the U.S. 1st Infantry Division killed three Vietnamese civilians and wounded 19 more. A spokesman said an artillery battery fired nine 105mm shells into the town of Tan Uyen, 20 miles northeast of Saigon early today. The spokesman said it three U. S. Air Force planes dent" caused by an error in computing firing data.

The same town was accidentally bombed last July 1 by was a "very regrettable acciwhose bombs killed five Vietnamese civilians and wounded 43. Tan Uyen, a town of several thousand persons, is just north of the Bien Hoa air base.

In the air war today, high-flying B52 bombers made two raids on suspected North Vietnamese troop concentrations 17 miles northwest and 24 miles southwest of the U.S. Army Special Forces camp at Plei Djereng, in the central highlands.

Monsoon rains persisted over North Viet Nam, restricting American pilots to 59 bombing missions Tuesday against targets in the Hanoi and Dien Dien Phu areas and in the southern panhandle. They reported heavy damage to a radar site 39 miles east of Dien Bien Phu and an antiaircraft radar site 76 miles northwest of Hanoi, six antiaircraft gun positions knocked out 16 miles southeast of Vinh in the panhandle and seven cargo barges damaged 25 miles southeast of Thanh Hoa.

Enemy groundifre knocked down a small American observation plane 91 miles northeast of Saigon Tuesday and two U.S. servicemen aboard were killed, U.S. headquarters reported.

The three truce periods announced by Premier Nguyen Cao Ky's government — two days each at Christmas and New Year's and four days during the lunar New Year — include cessation of U.S. air strikes and offshore naval bombardment against North Viet Nam.

Ky's announcement, confirmed by a presidential assistant at the Texas White House, followed a Viet Cong announcement Saturday of 48-hour cease-

Two-China Advocates Are Set Back

Chances For Any 2-China Formula Virtually Doomed

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The U.N. General Assembly's rejection of both the bid to seat Peking and the proposal to seek a compromise solution of the issue of China's representation has dealt a severe blow to advocates of a two-China policy.

The 62-34 defeat Tuesday of the Italian plan to turn the China problem over to a U.N. study group virtually doomed chances of any two-China formula now, since that was viewed as the goal of the proposed study.

The decision of the United States to support the Italian plan had been viewed as a major shift by Washington toward the two China idea. But the poor showing Peking made in this year's vote and the lack of support for the Italian proposal was expected to prompt a U.S. reappraisal of a solution it did not relish.

The results of the balloting came as a general surprise. Peking had been given virtually no chance of winning a seat under the two-thirds majority rule, but few expected it to emerge 11 votes behind the Nationalists.

Supporters of Red China blamed the defeat on Peking's own attitude, pressure from the United States and the "quality" of new African governments.

Icy Winds Penetrate Middle US

Great Lakes Area Still Digging Out After Storm

LUDINGTON, Mich. (AP) — Icy winds moved into the nation's midsection today in the wake of the season's first major storm which left Great Lakes states still digging out from under a heavy blanket of snow.

Cold wave warnings — with temperatures expected to drop as much as 15 below zero in some sections — were posted for a seven-state area from Wyoming to Iowa and Kansas.

In Lake Huron, off the east coast of Michigan, eight German seamen were taken by helicopter Tuesday from a grounded freighter which began to break up under the pounding of 22-foot waves churned up by gale-force winds.

The 470-foot vessel, loaded with steel coil which her captain said was worth more than a million dollars, ran aground on a shoal Nov. 19. Most of the crew of 40 was flown to Germany while the others stayed behind for salvage purposes.

Off the western coast of Michigan, at Ludington, 184 passengers and crewmen remained stranded aboard the car ferry City of Midland 41 for the second night. The ship was driven onto a sandbar by the storm.

A tugboat sent from Wisconsin to pull the ferry off began to pump out the bilges of the ferry this morning.

A rescue force battled through five-foot snow drifts Tuesday and evacuated 24 elderly patients from an infirmary in Maple City, not far from Ludington. The patients, some as old as 94, shivered under blankets for nearly 14 hours after a storm-caused power failure cut

Toll Road Proposal Brought Out

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP)—State Sen. A. Basey Vanlandingham of Columbia today proposed construction of a toll road from Kansas City to southeastern Missouri to attract more tourist dollars to the Ozarks resort areas.

He said he would oppose toll roads in areas where state or federal highways are planned but believed the toll system was the only way to get highways quickly in areas where no regular routes are planned.

In a speech prepared for a meeting of the Boonslick Kiwanis Club of Columbia, Vanlandingham said the state is planning to improve U. S. 63 to provide dual lane traffic north and south across the center of the state.

For that reason he thought a toll road would not be feasible there.

But nothing is on the drawing boards to carry traffic between Kansas City and southeastern Missouri, traversing central Missouri's resort region on the way.

And there's no reason to oppose toll roads, he said. They have worked well elsewhere. It is simply a method by which the users pay the cost of building and maintaining a high class traffic artery.

It would at least delay the need for an increase in gasoline taxes, he said.

"It would give the visitors to our state a chance to take advantage of the recreational facilities of the central and southeast Ozarks area and at the same time drop some of the 'green stuff' to help keep this state green," Vanlandingham said.

Hurt Named To Post On Board of Advisors

JEFFERSON CITY (AP) — Ewing Hurt of Pilot Grove was appointed by Gov. Warren E. Hearnes Tuesday to the board of advisers for the State School for the Blind at St. Louis.

He succeeds Mrs. Robert M. White of Mexico, who resigned.

Surviving Quintuplet In Trouble

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The sole surviving Aranson quintuplet developed serious breathing problems today and the chances of her survival took a sharp dip.

"Roni Sue had some difficulty during the night which alters the outlook for her," the infant's pediatrician, Dr. Lee Bass, announced in a mid-morning medical briefing.

"She had some episodes of apnea (suspension of breathing) and had to be stimulated to breathe." the doctor said. "This kind of spell makes the outlook quite different."

Dr. Bass previously had given Roni Sue a relatively good chance of overcoming the respiration difficulties that claimed the lives of her four sisters within 56 hours of their birth Saturday.

The respiration problem was only the latest in a series of crises — some major and some minor — that doctors have

Home Beauty Contest On In Sedalia

The home Christmas decorations contest, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, is for the purpose of encouraging attractive decorations throughout the city, and those planning to decorate are urged to enter the contest by calling the Chamber of Commerce.

The prize money will not, of course, pay the winners for such decorations, and is not intended to. The contest is to encourage people to decorate their homes for the holiday season.

It may be the simplest and least expensive decorations, however, that will win, since imaginaion and creative ability usually go a long ways in the scoring of the judges in such contests.

There are two classifications, one with the outside decorations and the other those that may be seen through a window or a door from a car in the street.

The judging will be Dec. 16.

Sailors Taken Off Dying Ship Were 'Not Badly Off'

ALPENA, Mich. (AP) — Eight seamen, who were plucked from a German freighter as it began breaking u pin a Lake Huron gale, returned to dry land today and said their stay had not been too bad.

"We were wet and cold, but we were not too badly off," said Capt. Ernst-George Steinbeck. "We were well equipped with clothing and food.

"We had good training for this sort of thing," he added. "We did not give up."

An unexpected pause in a gale-force snow squall gave a Coast Guard helicopter time to lift the men from the freighter Nordmeer as she began to crack amidships in the storm-whipped lake Tuesday.

The squall closed in again shortly after the last man had been pulled off the steel-laden vessel, aground since Nov. 19 on Thunder Bay Shoal, 12 miles northeast of Thunder Bay Island.

"God was real nice to us," said Lt. Jack Rittichier of Barberton, Ohio, copilot of the helicopter. "The storm broke as we moved in. All of a sudden things cleared up. As soon as the last man was picked up, it began snowing again.

During their last 30 hours aboard the ship, the men faced waves as high as 22 feet and gale winds from 35 to 40 knots, gusting up to 60 knots at times.

Capt. Steinbeck said the men had decided Monday night to evacuate the ship Tuesday morning. But shortly after midnight, a hatch began filling with water and a bulkhead on the starboard side began filling with water, Steinbeck said.

All cabins on the main deck began to fill with water, so the men moved their food and clothing into the pilot's cabin.

Unaware that their SOS of 3:03 a.m. Tuesday had been monitored, the seamen sent up distress flares two hours later, Steinbeck said.

After being lifted off the Nordmeer late Tuesday afternoon, the men were flown to the Coast Guard cutter Mackinaw where they spent the night.

They were brought ashore to

A Constructive Beginning

Mayor For Needed Assist To Park Department

"To get things accomplished most people need motivation. I hope it works! ! !"

This is an observation by Mayor Ralph H. Walker in a memorandum accompanying statements in a Letter to the Editor concerning the mayor's position on Liberty Park lagoon which has been under public discussion following his recent announcement of a possibility the lagoon might be filled in.

Because of the timeliness of the mayor's statement, the editor accords it page one position herewith:

"The Sedalia Board of Park Commissioners, Mr. Black and his staff and other interested individuals and organizations have done an outstanding almost miraculous job of making the Sedalia park system one of the finest in the state, even in the nation for a community of this size, particularly in view of the fact that such limited funds have been available.

"As a boy I lived in the 1200 block on West Fourth Street and practically grew up in Liberty Park. I had no desire at that time nor do I now wish to see the lagoon filled in. On the contrary, if the cry were to go up all over Sedalia to "fill it in" I honestly do not know where we would get the money or the dirt with which to do the job. But the sad truth of the matter is that today the lake in Liberty Park stands as a monument to decay and neglect. To the thousands of out of town visitors that go through our park every year it is almost like putting our worst foot forward. The park board has wrestled for a number of years with the problem of what could best be done. They have considered repairing it; filling it; rebuilding it. But they do not have money or facilities to accomplish any of these things. If nothing is done, the lagoon will continue to deteriorate until the State Board of Health steps in and condemns it. At that time it will cost a great deal more to improve its condition than it will now. And why should we, as a community, going to make the remark so wait for an outside agency to determine our course of action?

"My statement the other night was "premature" because I should have warned both the park board and the men of the council that I was that they could be prepared for

1968 Cars Must Be Made Safer

DETROIT (AP) — The nation's four largest automakers had the word today on what they must do to make 1968 cars safer. Their first reaction indicated they were neither surprised nor disturbed by it.

The word came Tuesday night from Dr. William Haddon Jr., the recently named national highway safety chief, as he released 23 safety proposals recommended by the federal government.

None of the proposals, described only in capsule form by Dr. Haddon, indicated any major changes would be required in 1968 automobiles.

Dr. Haddon said many of them are "already met by most of the vehicles to which they would apply."

The newly created National Traffic and Highway Safety Agency is expected to release detailed, technical versions of the proposals by Thursday.

Dr. Haddon unveiled the proposals at a dinner sponsored by the Detroit Automobile Show. It marked his first meeting with the four auto company presidents—James M. Roche of General Motors, Arjay Miller of Ford, Lynn A. Townsend of Chrysler and Roy Abernethy of American Motors.

The company heads had kind words for Dr. Haddon.

Dr. Haddon's list left out several items suggested by the General Services Administration, which buys cars for federal government use.

Chief among these were standard bumper height for all cars, roll bars for light trucks and Jeep-type vehicles, rear window defoggers and right hand outside rearview mirrors.

"You must remember that GSA buys a limited number of cars for the government, while we are setting standards for the entire industry," Dr. Haddon said.

Most 1967 cars on sale in the United States meet the safety proposals, Dr. Haddon said. He declined to say what foreign or domestic cars might not qualify.

ACS Pleas To Smoker On Cancer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The American Cancer Society repeated today its plea for men and women to give up cigarette smoking "in order to protect themselves against cancer, emphysema and heart disease."

"However, those who continue the habit should be able to choose cigarettes with low tar and nicotine in the main stream of smoke," said Dr. Harold S. Diehl, the society's deputy executive vice president for research and medical affairs.

Diehl's statement came as the society presented a report at a Federal Trade Commission hearing on rules the FTC has proposed for use in testing cigarettes and reporting on their nicotine content.

Besides cancer society spokesmen, representatives of the tobacco industry and government experts are scheduled to testify at the hearing.

Diehl said the society is convinced that "it is in the interest of health to provide the public with information as to the tar and nicotine content of the smoke of the various brands of cigarettes on the American market."

The testing is expected to be done by machines that puff on cigarettes as a person does. After a measured amount of smoke passes through a filter, the filter is weighed to determine the amount of residue present.

Among points to be decided are the butt length to which test cigarettes are smoked, the number of cigarettes that should be smoked to measure tar and nicotine content, how the test cigarettes should be selected and how the results of the tests should be reported to the public.

The U.S. Public Health Service, meanwhile, offered new statistics from death records to back up its claims about the alleged health perils of smoking, particularly cigaret smoking.

The report released Tuesday deals exclusively with death-rate statistics which the Surgeon General's 1964 report had said were at least associated with smoking. Included are some maladies, such as lung cancer, which the 1964 report said are definitely caused by smoking.

The Tobacco Institute Inc., representing tobacco company viewpoints, had no immediate comment on the new report. It previously had said there is no acceptable evidence that prolonged exposure to nicotine creates either "dangerous functional change of an objective nature or degenerative disease."

Sedalian Attends Real Estate Meeting

Mrs. David Hieronymus, 1516 West 16th, returned last week from Miami Beach, Fla., where she attended the 59th National Real Estate Convention, held on Nov. 13-17.

Mrs. Hieronymus, also, was with the group that was on a tour to Nassau which, she said, proved to be interesting and enlightening.

The convention was attended by 7,800 realtors from the United States, Canada and Hawaii. There were several noted speakers from Washington, D. C., and other areas, and among the subjects discussed were the recent "tight money" situation in the lending field of this profession.

Rocket Launched By New Method

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — A 150-ton rocket has been launched in a manner which scientists say saves energy and offers great promise for large solid-fuel rockets.

The rocket engine was ignited at partial power Tuesday at the bottom of an 80-foot tube. Gas pressure built up behind it, and the rocket roared out like a dart from a blowgun or a bullet from a rifle.

The 10-foot diameter rocket was tethered so that it would rise only 500 feet and then fall to the ground.

Lockheed Propulsion Co., made the test.

Normally solid fuel rockets burn at full power while leaving the ground, the firm said, operating inefficiently and using excessive fuel.

Red Chinese On Threshold Of Violence

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

Soviet and European Communist reports leave the reader with the impression that the Moscow camp sees Red China's leadership on the threshold of a showdown clash and an ensuing violent political explosion.

Moscow seeks a world Communist conference which, in effect, would read the current Red Chinese leadership out of the revolutionary movement — but not the Chinese Communist party as such.

With slashing attacks unmatched in vehemence since the days of Nikita S. Khrushchev, Moscow has rejoined the battle of verbal brickbats with Peking. For all the vigor of the attack, it is a careful one which expresses "deep respect for the Chinese people and for Chinese Communists."

Perhaps, in Moscow's thinking, the forces now pushing the "great proleterian cultural revolution" in Red China and spearheading the attack on the Soviet party may not be the ultimate winners.

A series of Moscow commentaries suggest a Soviet belief — or possibly a wish — that Lin Piao, heir apparent to Mao Tse-tung, and those who support him have been digging their own graves.

These commentaries hint that the current leaders have done some incredible things. They have broken up the Central Committee of the Young Communist League and virtually dismantled that important organization of nine million middle - generation Communists. They have destroyed the Peking City party committee. They have dismembered staffs of important papers. They have dismantled the party organization of Peking University.

Reports from the Czechoslovak news agency's Peking correspondent suggest that the Chinese military is in charge of the purge, but that Defense Minister Lin is opposed by still powerful men. These include President Liu Shao-chi and Teng Hsiao-ping, the party's general secretary.

The agency reports that Peking students have denounced Liu as a "time bomb" threatening Mao. It said the leaflets depicted Liu and Teng as No. 1 and 2 bosses of a "black gang" trying to halt the cultural revolution, and declared that "the antiparty reactionary line will not be liquidated" until the two are deposed.

To Help Put Out Fire Drives To Firemen

ALLEGAN, Mich (AP)—Ken Kugelard didn't wait for the fire department to come to him when a fire started in the back seat of his car recently.

He telephoned the fire department, shouting: "My car's on fire! I'll be right over!"

At the station house firemen put out the blaze and Kugelard drove away.

Argentina Leader Sees Trouble Signs

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP) — Six months after taking power, Lt. Gen. Juan Carlos Ongania is treading cautiously into the teeth of a young hurricane. The winds of labor union anger show signs of growing stronger.

Ongania knows these winds of change must blow themselves out before the national salvage campaign he heads can be complete.

He knows, too, that national strikes, student unrest and political ambitions among men who wear uniforms have toppled many South American regimes.

Although he inherited a jackstraw pile of problems June 28 when the military took over, the general has grabbed only one firmly. That problem was reorganization of the port of Buenos Aires, one of the more inefficient and costly in the world.

A port workers' strike failed, in the government view. More laborers went to work than stayed away when the strike began. But the fight isn't over, and the port must be won before Ongania's forces can move onto the next objective, the state-owned railroads.

Clamping down on the railroad bureaucracy may bring the hurricane. Some estimates say 80,000 workers must be discharged. The railroad unions aren't likely to take that lying down.

Something has to be done since the railroads account for 40-50 per cent of the government deficit. Frequent freight and passenger rate increases haven't done the trick.

The Peronist threat seems diminished. Perhaps the military character of the government is responsible. Perhaps it is because, as a few Peronist leaders say, Juan D. Peron has lived too long in luxury in Madrid, Spain.

TV Viewing Higher Than Last Year

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — There are persistent references these days to a drop-off in television audiences. But even as the critics mourn the lack of excitement in this season's crop of programs, there apparently is little evidence of any reduction in audience size or even of an disenchantment on the part of viewers.

Paul Klein, NBC vice president in charge of research, insists that the television audience this season consists of about 54,900,000 television-equipped homes — 1,100,000 more than last year, and that only about seven homes in a hundred are without at least one television set.

Klein's figures, from various sources, indicate that the average set is in use 5 hours and 29 minutes a day — an increase of about 6 minutes over last year.

"There are more television homes than ever before, there are more color sets than ever before and—contrary to popular belief—there are more upper-income homes with television than there are low-income homes," he said.

"Maybe people like to say that they are watching television less. But that could just be because the more people watch television, the more guilt-ridden they feel about it. It may be that they are reluctant to admit how much they watch."

The cute blonde girl in those explosive automobile commercials is named Pam Austin, and she has been signed to play the title role in a prospective series, "The Perils of Pauline."

Working in commercials seems to be a good way to start a performing career. Grace Kelly did a soap commercial in the old days. And look what happened to Barbara Feldon, who started out selling cosmetics, moved on to costar in "Get Smart," and is now making motion pictures in her spare time.

NBC's news department has in the works a three-part series on Communist expansion and U.S. involvement in Southeast Asia. It will deal with Thailand, Laos and Indonesia. The first will be broadcast Dec. 16.

"Stage 67" ABC's anthology series, has signed Lauren Bacall and John Forsythe for a light documentary which will trace our nation's dance fashions from the minuet to the frug. It is for February broadcast.

Ann Landers

Answers Your Problems

Dear Ann Landers: The best way I know to get a vital message across to millions of people is to write to Ann Landers. Here it is — an open letter to grandparents:

Why, oh why, don't you treat your grandchildren the way you treated your own children when they were growing up? Did you stuff your own youngsters with ice cream, candy and popcorn? Did you let them stay up beyond their normal bed time just to have a little extra fun? Did you let your own kids talk back to you? Did you make excuses for them when they misbehaved? Did you laugh at their bad manners and call it cute? Why, then, do you do this to your grandchildren?

We — the parents — have to undo all your spoiling when we take our children home from your place — or after you leave our place. Please give your grandchildren a break. Stick to the rules their parents have set up for them.

And please don't take your grandchild's side against his mother and dad. We have enough trouble raising kids today. Thank you very much.—BATTLE WEARY PETITIONER

Dear Petitioner: Some Grandparents retionalize their permissiveness by telling themselves they are not going to train their grandchildren—that they simply want to enjoy them.

This of course is fourth-rate reasoning. Grandparents undermine their childrens' hard work when they let their grandchildren get away with a lot of nonsense. And please don't say, "wait till you have grandchildren of your own." I have grandchildren of my own and I'm a pretty tough ol' cookie.

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a 17-year-old high school senior who read in a magazine that $10 a month will support an abandoned Korean child. The magazine piece said the child's case history will be sent and the child will write to his adoptive parents.

I have a fairly generous allowance and I do baby-sitting weekends. Would I qualify even though I am only 17? Please tell me where to write if I am eligible. Thank you. — WANT TO HELP

Dear Want To: Whenever I hear someone putting down today's teen-agers, I like to haul out a letter like yours and show them how wrong they are.

There is no age limit on this adoptive plan. Write to Compassion, 7774 West Irving Park Road, Chicago, Illinois 60634. In Canada the address is Box No. 880, Blenheim, Ontario. It's a wonderful thing to do and I admire you for wanting to do it.

Dear Ann Landers: I have a young friend who talks of death constantly. He is bright and sensitive and has much to offer. It makes me terribly sad to hear him say he wants to die because he can't stand all the horrible things that are happening in the world today.

Three weeks ago this young man had his third automobile accident. He managed to escape again with only minor injuries. I have the feeling he is trying to kill himself. Is this possible? What can I do to help him?—CONCERNED

Dear Concerned: It sounds as if your friend is indeed trying to kill himself. The only thing you can do is try to get him to seek profssional help before he succeeds and takes somebody with him.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this Newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Young People Finish Youth Progam

Eighty-two extremely enthusiastic young people, aged 16 and 17, recently finished a well planned Youth Business Program in Sedalia.

The program was conducted by Francis Mergen and Eldon Leiter, Production Credit Association, along with four business men. The Sedalia businessmen who presented programs, were as follows: Retailing, Francis Giger, S & M Sporting Goods; Processing and Retailing, Don King, Archias Floral Co.; Advertising, Carl Yates, KSIS Radio; and Retailing, George Moyer, Safeway Supermarket.

This group of businessmen also sponsored the transportation finances for a tour of Kansas City along with Production Credit Association.

An additional meeting on "Understanding Agricultural Business Operations" was highlighted by a panel discussion composed of the following people: Crop farming, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fortune; Eggs, Don Grant; Dairy, Mr. and Mrs. Russell McFatrich; Hogs, Paul Nietzert; Beef, Gale Van Slyke; and Turkeys, Dennis Cloud. Owen Fox was panel moderator.

The purpose of the Youth Business Program is to study principles and operation of various businesses and to pick up career ideas.

The program ended with a recent tour to Kansas City of the following places: Hallmark Cards, Farmland Industries (formerly C.C.A.); Safeway Warehouse, Kansas City Museum, and the University of Missouri at Kansas City. Production Credit treated the group to a good movie.

YOUR CHILD MAY HAVE PIN-WORMS
1 OUT OF 3 DOES

Fidgeting, nose-picking, a tormenting rectal itch are often telltale signs of Pin-Worms...ugly parasites that medical experts say infest 1 out of every 3 persons examined. Entire families may be victims and not know it

To get rid of Pin-Worms, they must be killed in the large intestine where they live and multiply. That's exactly what Jayne's P-W tablets do . . . and here's how they do it:

First—a scientific coating carries the tablets into the bowels before they dissolve. Then—Jayne's modern, medically-approved ingredient goes right to work—kills Pin-Worms quickly and easily.

Don't take chances with dangerous, highly contagious Pin-Worms which infect entire families. Get genuine Jayne's P-W Vermifuge . . . small, easy-to-take tablets . . . special sizes for children and adults.

Money does grow... but not on trees!

Of course money doesn't grow on trees ...it grows in a Farm & Home savings account! Grows fast, too, because Farm & Home pays the highest dividend consistent with maximum security.

Yes, in Farm & Home's hands the dollars you save are "growth" dollars, building you a reserve of ready cash as your earnings accumulate and start earning their own dividends. Furthermore, you never have to wait for a "fresh crop". Your money is always readily available.

More important, your money is in the hands of an organization with over 73 years of experience in sound, conservative money management. It is backed by Farm & Home's own assets of more than $400,000,000, strong reserves, and insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation.

Cultivate the habit of saving regularly at Farm & Home and turn your savings into "growth" dollars.

BOSTON — This Martin Company artist's concept shows possible placement of SNAP-29 nuclear generators, each supplying 500 watts of electricity on a manned space station made up of spent S-IVB stage of the Saturn launch vehicle. NASA is studying a post-Apollo mission for such a vehicle, lasting up to 30 days and using fuel cells as the primary power source. The SNAP-29 generators were displayed for the first time at the opening of the American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics here.

Jayne Mansfield's Son Recovering

THOUSAND OAKS, Calif. (AP) — Doctors report actress Jayne Mansfield's 6-year-old son, Zoltan Hargitay, in satisfactory condition following surgical removal of his spleen.

The boy, who was mauled by a chained lion at an animal compound Saturday, slept well after spending a restless post-surgery night Monday, a hospital spokesman said.

Viet Nam Map Changes Little As To Holdings

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Although more than 360,000 U.S. troops are now in Viet Nam, the map of areas under allied control has changed only slightly and slowly.

American soldiers, often moving swiftly in helicopter thrusts, go more and more frequently into longtime sanctuaries of the enemy. They seek to hunt down the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese, throwing in huge amounts of artillery and aerial bombardment. Then normally, as in the recent Operation Attleboro in Tay Ninh Province, they pull back to their base camps and the map of Viet Nam looks much the same.

Areas of U.S. troop activity have expanded along the demilitarized zone between the two Viet Nams, and in limited areas near the Cambodian border. More American troops are in the field. But the rate of Communist infiltration from the north and recruiting in the south continue, and the maps showing the struggle for control of Viet Nam remain much the same.

As in the past, terms like areas of control are subject to definition. More roads are opened and considered secure when it is felt worthwhile to put well-guarded convoys on them or large numbers of troops to guard them. When this is no longer done, the Viet Cong again controls the roads.

Americans hold their base camp areas in relative security, except for occasional mortar attacks or harassment, but perimeters are extended slowly.

Accept Social Benefits Only By Persuasion

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Three ladies, aged 80 to 102, have decided to accept their Social Security benefits — $35 a month each. But they had to be persuaded.

The ladies would have none of it until they consulted their business adviser on the propriety of accepting money from the government.

"It's there for you and you might as well take it," he told Mrs. Ebon A. Swanson, 102, and her maiden daughters, Lurline, 81, and Alice, 80.

"We didn't need the money," said Alice, "and we thought that others could use it more." But they decided to take it — and give it to charity.

The ladies live in a huge Victorian mansion Swedish-born Capt. Alexander Swanson built for his wife and daughters at the turn of the century. Capt. Swanson was the dean of San Francisco Bay pilots.

"We're all ver yhealthy, just perfect," said Alice, "and we expect to be around a while."

Washington Capsules

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon is lowering its draft standards again in order to obtain 40,000 more men for remedial military training.

The third revision of draft standards this year provides for rescreening of men now classified 1Y: fit for service only in time of declared war or national emergency.

The latest step is part of Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara's plan to draft and give special training to borderline cases in order to make them qualified for general military service.

The lowered standards announced Tuesday are still higher than those in effect during the Korean War.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Despite the absence of France at the payout window, the U.S. gold supply dropped $45 million more during October, the Federal Reserve Board reported today.

At the end of October, the board said, U.S. gold stocks totaled $13,311,000,000, a net loss of $495 million since the beginning of the year.

This was far less than last year's loss of $1.66 billion.

A decline in reserves prevented France from following during October her usual monthly practice of converting at least $34 million of her excess dollar holdings into gold at $35 an ounce.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has received an assessment from U.S. experts that India's food needs are urgent and if anything can be done by this country to help now, it should be done.

Official sources said the President and his aides have reached no final decision on an Indian request for 2 million tons of grain as interim aid.

The White House received special congressional authorization to help India avert famine conditions this year. About 10 million tons of grain has been supplied by this country.

Percy Daughter To Wed John D. Rockefeller

KENILWORTH, Ill. (AP) — Republican Sen.-elect Charles H. Percy announced Tuesday his daughter, Sharon Lee, 21, will marry John D. Rockefeller IV in March.

Rockefeller, 29, scored an election victory as a Democratic nominee for the West Virginia Legislature. Percy, 47, ousted three-term incumbent Democratic Sen. Paul Douglas in Illinois.

Miss Percy, the twin sister of Valerie who was slain Sept. 18 in her bedroom of the Percy mansion, is the daughter of the senator-elect by his first wife, Jeanne Dickerson Percy.

Miss Percy has visited Rockefeller's home in Charleston, W.Va., and Rockefeller, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rockefeller III, confirmed reports last week that he had been seeing Miss Percy a "good deal."

Bomb Scare Brings Harmless Results

ENID, Okla. (AP) — Informed that two lunch boxes, in two discount stores, contained bombs, police gingerly carried them outside Tuesday night.

Sandbags were packed around one box and two loads of sand were dumped on the other one at the second store. Loud ticks came from both lunch buckets.

Officers ordered both areas evacuated.

An Army bomb-disposal unit at Ft. Sill, 125 miles to the south, was notified.

"I don't think the bomb-disposal boys will appreciate having to dig through all that sand," said one police officer.

The soldiers arrived early today and dismantled the padlocked boxes.

Inside both were alarm clocks and pieces of concrete.

The Batmans Are Bothered In Kansas City

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The four Batman families listed in the Kansas City telephone book are not amused. All report harassing calls by practical jokers since March.

That's when the television program, Batman, made its debut. There have been as many as 24 such calls to one of the Batman families in one day.

"We are harrassed all hours of the day and night," said Mrs. Curtis W. Batman.

"There's only one advantage I can think of," said Mrs. Chestina Batman. "Nobody forgets our name anymore."

Mrs. Oral Batman has not seen the show.

"I'm so sick of this I don't want to watch it," she said.

Mrs. Ray Batman said the calls got so bad in Topeka, Kan., where her mother-in-law lives, that she was forced to get an unlisted number.

The Kansas City Batmans, however, have to keep their telephones listed for business purposes.

The calls, they said, usually start out like this "This is the Commissioner. Is Batman there?" Or: "Is Robin there?" Or just: "We need help."

The city counselor's office said Tuesday it was looking into possible violations of a new ordinance making harrassing telephone calls a misdemeanor.

Rubber Christmas Tree Comes To Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — This city soon will have its own Christmas tree lanes. But like many other things in the film capital, the trees won't be what they seem.

The City Council voted Tuesday to institute a $90,000 tree-planting program.

The trees will have supporting pipes which will be used to string colored lights during the Christmas season.

However, the 225 Christmas trees won't be traditional firs.

Tiny Thieves Steal Car For Joyride

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Police report the arrest of two young auto thieves so tiny one squatted on the floor to work the gas and brake while the other, perched atop a wash pan on the driver's seat, did the steering.

Inspector H.R. Ray said Tuesday the youngsters, 9 and 13, admitted using this technique to take 10 stolen automobiles on joyrides.

"We didn't believe they could do it," Ray said, "until they demonstrated their system."

The system came to grief however when one of the boys pushed the gas pedal instead of the brake. The car rammed a tree and police collared them.

Cover Street With Glass For Viewing

ROME (AP) — There's a plan afoot to pave Rome's swankest shopping street with glass.

If it works, tourists in Via Frattina could stare down in to the ruins of one of the most lavish villas any Roman ever built with the wealth of conquests.

Archeologists believe that beneath the street is the villa of that bon vivant, Lucius Licinius Luculius, the general who conquered Armenia and governed part of Asia in the 1st century B.C.

The sumptuous villa and its gardens began under what is now the Piazza di Spagna and extended 942 feet, the full length of what is now Via Frattina.

It was wrecked by invading Vandals, then covered by the silt of floods from the Tiber.

Every time a sewer or telephone tunnel has been dug in the area, broken columns and parts of mosaic have been found.

The campaign to put it all under glass was started by Dr. Vittore Querel, owner of an art gallery. He says he and all other shop owners along the street might be able to cover a large share of the cost.

All ruins beneath the street would be uncovered and restored. Then it would be paved with glass.

It would only hold pedestrians. The store owners contend you can't look down on history—or do any shopping—from an automobile.

President Says Tax Decision At Year's End

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson says he hopes to reach his decision "around the end of the year" on whether to ask Congress for a tax increase.

"No decision has been made," he told a news conference Tuesday in his office in the Austin Federal Building.

"No decision will be made until we have all the facts. Guesses will be made from time to time. That is a democratic privilege. But at best, they are guesses."

Asked whether he put Rep. Hale Boggs of Louisiana, assistant House Democratic leader, in the guessing category, Johnson replied: "I think he put himself there. I think that was his language."

Boggs predicted last Sunday that Johnson would ask the new Congress for a $10 billion to $15 billion tax increase.

Johnson announced at the outset of the news conference that he had cut back various federal programs by $5.3 billion with a saving of more than $3 billion in actual spending of budgeted funds in the remaining seven months of the current fiscal year.

He described the program and spending reductions as "another step to protect and preserve our prosperity."

"By this action we will stretch out and postpone, withhold and defer the less essential items of our programs—the low priority ones," he said.

Undersecretary of the Treasury Joseph W. Barr said in Washington that the $3 billion spending reduction in the fiscal year which ends June 30 will have no effect on the administration's thinking about a possible income tax increase. The cut, he said, already has been worked into the Treasury's figuring.

Johnson, explaining why he cannot make his decision now, said he will have better information around the end of the year.

In this connection, he said he plans to meet with the Joint Chiefs of Staff of the armed forces about the middle of the month and with Chairman Gardner Ackley of the Council of Economic Advisers perhaps this week.

He said a decision on a holiday truce in the war in Viet Nam would be announced "perhaps sometime within the next few hours." When the government of South Viet Nam announced several hours later that fighting would cease for Christmas, New Year's and for the lunar New Year, Johnson had nothing to say.

The President said he plans to make a brief trip Saturday across the Mexican border to join President Gustavo Diaz Ordaz for an inspection of the Amistad Dam construction site on the Rio Grande. The $70 million dam is the second major storage dam to be built by the two governments under a 1944 water treaty. It is in the area of Del Rio, Tex.

Man Capable Of Year-Long Space Flights

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — The astronauts' physician, Dr. Charles Berry, says he has found nothing so far that would prevent men making flights of up to one year — long enough to go to Mars and back.

As a matter of fact, he told the annual clinical meeting of the American Medical Association Tuesday, "man himself does not appear to be a barrier to the exploration of our universe."

Dr. Berry, director of medical research at the Manned Spacecraft Center, Houston, Tex., said "I'm very optimistic about the upcoming Apollo program" to land man on the moon in the next two or three years.

"The success of the Mercury and Gemini programs means we have already qualified man for the Apollo flight," he said. "The lunar mission will take eight days and we've already had men in orbit 14 days."

In a news conference, Dr. Berry said, "I'd like to gradually extend flight times to 30 days, 60 days and even up to a year—checking each time, of course, to be sure that it is safe to go ahead."

He predicted that if there are any critical problems they would show up after flights of 30 to 60 days. "Virtually every adaptive change the human system would have to make to space environment would be made by that time," he said.

He said man has proved capable of adapting to extreme conditions and that while much remains to be learned, long flights appear to be largely a problem of building spacecraft that will give man an adequate environment.

The Department of Health, Education and Welfare (HEW) was created by President Dwight Eisenhower.

Middle East On the Brink Of Explosion

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP) — Syria's ruling Baath Socialist party called Tuesday night for the overthrow of Jordan's King Hussein.

Elsewhere in the tense Middle East Israel shot down two Egyptian jet planes and a new exchange of gunfire broke out across the Jordan-Israeli frontier.

The incidents occurred on the 19th anniversary of the United Nations decision to partition Palestine, then under British mandate, to establish the state of Israel.

Syria's rulers, long at odds with the Hashemite monarchy of Jordan, called on "rebellious forces in Jordan" to overthrow the 31-year-old king and "create the necessary climate for the return to Palestine."

The Baathist International Command, highest authority in the party, in a statement later called for establishment of a "national progressive front" in Jordan to overthrow Hussein and wage a Palestine liberation battle.

The command accused Hussein of "the biggest oppressive operation of terror in Jordan's history" in his quelling of demonstrations following Israel's Nov. 13 attack on the Jordanian village of Samua. The demonstrators demanded arms to battle Israel.

In Amman, the Jordanian capital, Hussein declared that the Middle East is on the brink of an explosion more dangerous to world peace than the Suez crisis of 1956. He accused the Russians of fomenting tension to gain control of the oil-rich area.

In other developments:

—An Israeli pilot shot down two Egyptian MIG19s in a two-minute dogfight Tuesday after the MIGs had crossed about three miles into Israeli air space, Israeli authorities said.

—Shots from Jordan's Rujum police station in the eastern Judean mountains were fired across the border at a group of Israeli forest workers. Israeli troops guarding the workers returned the fire.

—Authoritative sources in Washington said the United States is beefing up Jordan's air force with 36 F104 Starfighters, Lockheed jets capable of doing 1,500 miles an hour.

Mayor

whatever might happen. To them I offer my public apology.

"I am deeply interested in our city parks and for that reason wasted no time after the election in recommending the passage of the state authorized 2 mill park levy. It not only gave the park department a few more dollars on which to operate but also allowed us to raise the salaries of almost all city employees so that if any citizen should need the services of the fire or police departments, for instance, there will be someone there to answer the phone. It gives the men in the street department and the sanitation department a little more to take home with them besides their dedication to Sedalia which has been the primary reason our city employees have continued their work. Any man in any department could go elsewhere today and find a higher paying job.

"If people in Sedalia were shocked, angry and disheartened at the thought of filling in the lagoon then the remark has served its purpose and I would ask those people to stay in a state of shock and anger long enough so that we might roll up our sleeves, go to work and give our park department a needed assist.

"The Liberty Park lagoon has deteriorated even under the watchful eyes of the editor of our daily newspaper but we are all responsible. We look at the lake today and because of its great sentimental attachment we remember it as it once was. Our parks should not only be a source of immense pride and enjoyment for our residents but also a basis of great admiration for our many, many visitors.

"If Sedalians are not convinced the lagoon needs a great deal of immediate attention all I ask is that they view it as if they were seeing it for the first time through the eyes of a stranger.

"I wonder if those people who gleefully tried to make politics a part of the "shock" are proud of their actions. But what is more important I wonder if we, the citizens, upon whose shoulders the responsibility for the condition of the lagoon lies, will allow it to continue. People will ask, "Is the Liberty Park lake more important than increased fire protection, a new city hall, more street repair, or any other of our community's many needs?"

"The answer, "Perhaps not, but it is a definite, constructive beginning."

US Patrol Hits Hard At Viet Cong

DI AN, Viet Nam (AP) — Counting silently, the five Americans on the long-range patrol watched 80 Viet Cong troops file along the road 20 yards away. Then one of the Americans, moving slightly, snapped a twig.

The frighteningly loud "pop" brought a Viet Cong soldier snooping toward them. He saw them and died.

Down went 30 other Viet Cong "as we laid down fire over an 80-yard swath," said Sgt. Cleetus Sanders of St. Louis, Mo., telling the story at a briefing seven hours after the clash at 7:30 a. m. today.

Three of his patrol had never been behind enemy lines before. They all made it home without a scratch but with Sanders dangling from the rope ladder of the rescue helicopter during the 12-minute flight to Phu Loi.

Half the time Sanders was unconscious. The last man up into the helicopter, he had snapped a latch on his pistol belt strap a few seconds before he passed out from exertion and excitement.

Helicopter gun ships and tactical air strikes called by Lt. Robert Passour of Gastonia, N. C., from his command helicopter raked the fleeing Viet Cong. The Communists put up some rifle and automatic rifle fire but did no harm.

"Our aircraft guns accounted for a quite a few more Viet Cong," said Capt. Mathew Dallas of Geary, Okla.

One of the helicopters was piloted by Lt. Wade Green of Lawrence, Kan.

The five-man patrol had been dropped into the area 32 miles northeast of Saigon Sunday morning.

They are one of the specially trained long-range patrols of the U. S. Army's 1st Infantry Division assigned to reconnoiter enemy positions. Their orders are to get information and not to fight unless absolutely necessary.

"We wiped out at least 30 of the Viet Cong," Sanders said. "Some were moaning and yelling on the road. Other Viet Cong fire back and gave chase, with our patrol running and firing 500 yards north of the road, until the helicopter to rescue us arrived."

The commander of the 1st Division, Maj. Gen. William Depuy congratulated the patrol and pilots personally, saying, "you did a tremendous job, you made a pretty big hole in whatever unit that was out there. It was a highly profitable patrol."

Control Facilities In Missouri Now

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP)— Missouri now has 127 soil and water control installations in 10 watersheds, Howard C. Jackson announced today. He is head of the U. S. Soil Conservation Service in Missouri.

The three latest structures inspected and approved this week are along the south fork of the Blackwater River, with 40 acres of ponds protecting a 65,000 acre drainage area in southwestern Johnson County.

Water development is sponsored by local soil and water conservation districts.

fires during Christmas and New Year's. The Communists also were expected to join in the truce for the lunar New Year — Viet Nam's festival of the Tet — as they do every year.

The truce agreement announced by Ky covers all anti-Communist allied forces in Viet Nam, including those of the United States, Australia, New Zealand, South Korea, Thailand and the Philippines.

Presidential assistant George Christian said at the Texas White House that President Johnson participated in the decision and was notified in advance of the announcement.

During short Christmas and New Year cease-fires last year, both sides accused the other of violations. The 1965 Christmas truce produced a 37-day pause in the bombing of North Viet Nam, a lull which U.S. military men say the North Vietnamese used to rush reinforcements south.

Alpena this morning by the fishing vessel Wolf.

Capt. Steinbeck said both the forward and aft holds of the ship had filled with water, causing the vessel to crack in the middle. But, he said, she has not yet broken up.

"In the next big storm it will break up. You can be sure of that," said Steinbeck.

The helicopter was piloted by Lt. Lonnie Mixon, of Mobile, Ala. Aviation Mechanic 2.C. David C. Nofftz of Joliet, Ill., was the other crew member.

As the helicopter neared the stricken ship, Cmdr. George Winstein of the Coast Guard cutter Mackinaw was preparing a sea rescue effort.

The helicopter made two trips, carrying four men each time.

"The keel was broken and the main deck was awash when we left her," Winstein said of the Mordmeer. The Mackinaw took the seaman to Alpena.

"They were all pretty tired, but in good health," said Winstein.

The Nordmeer sent out an SOS early Tuesday.

"The last message said the Nordmeer was breaking up and taking water in all hatches," a Coast Guard spokesman said.

Carrying a cargo of coiled steel, the Nordmeer had run aground 11 days ago. The impact tore a long, jagged gash in her bow.

Most of the 40 crew members were flown back to the ship's home port, Hamburg, West Germany. Captain Steinbeck and seven crewmen remained on board to prevent anyone claiming the ship for salvage.

faced in their battle to keep Roni Sue alive.

The infant, born 2½ months prematurely, developed jaundice Tuesday. Her liver was not cleansing her blood properly. That difficulty still threatened her.

"Her jaundice appears about the same, and at the present time her breathing is easy and her color is good," Dr. Bass said.

"There is a possibility she may withstand all of this."

The doctor said a decision probably would be made later today on whether Roni Sue would have to have an exchange of blood to combat the jaundice.

The infant's breathing was restored, Dr. Bass said, through the use of a respirator. The machine was attached to the incubator in which the baby has been since birth.

Doctors said the quintuplet was accepting diluted evaporated milk in place of the glucose and water she was fed during the first hours after birth.

Air Attack Possible By N. Viet Nam

DONG HA, South Viet Nam (AP) — The United States set up antiaircraft guns just 10 miles south of the demilitarized zone today, and top officers said they were put there because of concern over possible Communist attacks.

The guns were placed on a hill near Dong Ha, the command headquarters for a combined U.S. Marine and South Vietnamese army force larger than an American division.

For several months, American commanders have been talking about the possibility of a Communist air attack on the huge Dong Ha military concentration that has sprung up since July, although the North Vietnamese are not known to have sent their MIG jets into South Viet Nam since the war began.

Radar-guided missiles have been set up around Da Nang, 90 miles south of here, to protect that important port and airfield from Communist attack. But the mushrooming Dong Ha complex depended only on jet fighters stationed at Da Nang for protection.

The new unit which set up its guns here is the Army's 1st Battalion of the 44th Artillery. It uses machine guns mounted on the back of trucks; and tracked vehicles carrying cannon and machine guns.

Lt. Col. Charles L. Leroy, 43, of Memphis, Tenn., said his unit arrived Nov. 6, and was assigned briefly to the U.S. 1st Cavalry, Airmobile, Division before being sent north.

Leroy said the guns under his command can be used against ground troops as well as aerial targets.

off their heat, lights and water.

Residents dug out from as much as 16 inches of snow in upper Michigan and northwestern lower Michigan. Highway crews attacked drifts as high as seven feet. Power company workmen repaired lines through the night, restoring electricity to areas in which more than 10,000 persons lost power for varying periods of time.

In Cleveland, Ohio, at the edge of Lake Erie, 10 persons died Tuesday from apparent heart attacks while shoveling snow.

The temperature fell below zero in Montana and along the nation's northwest border.

At Salt Lake City, Utah, thick fog forced airlines to reroute planes.

The dramatic rescue of the Nordmeer's crewmen off Alpena, Mich., took only 28 minutes. For 12 hours before that, the ship's captain, Ernst-George Steinbeck, and seven of his crewmen bore the brunt of winds that gusted to 60 knots — full gale force — as they sent out SOS signals.

At Ludington, the car ferry was reported out of danger during the storm, although the winds prevented vessels from taking off the passengers.

A Coast Guard cutter delivered fresh food to the car ferry Tuesday night, transferring the provisions on a line slung between the two ships.

The President said the largest share of the budget goes for defense and for expenditures over which he has no control, including interest on the national debt, veterans' assistance, agriculture price supports and payments on prior contracts.

The President also said he hopes to announce about the first of the year whether he will propose a tax increase. "There is not a thing in the world we can tell you about that until we have the figures," he said.

In Washington, Undersecretary of the Treasury Joseph M. Barr said a $3 billion spending cut already had been worked into the Treasury's figuring on a possible tax increase.

Dodgers, Yankees Look Forward To New Infields

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Los Angeles Dodgers, having acquired second baseman Ron Hunt, and the New York Yankees, having given up third baseman Clete Boyer, looked forward today to molding new infields with shortstop Maury Wills possibly leaving one and joining the other.

The National League champion Dodgers made the first major trade of the annual baseball meetings Tuesday, sending two-time batting champion Tommy Davis and infielder-outfielder Derrell Griffith to the Mets for Hunt and infielder-outfielder Jim Hickman.

Less than eight hours later, the Yankees and the Atlanta Braves completed the first interleague trade of the meetings and sent Boyer, an eight-year Yankee veteran, to the Braves.

In return the Yankees received outfielder Bill Robinson, who played for Richmond of the Internatioal League last season. The Yankees also got Federic (Chi Chi) Olivo for their Syracuse IL farm club roster and will send a player to Richmond later.

The Dodgers long have needed a solid third baseman, and the acquisition of Hunt will enable them to move Jim Lefebvre from second to third. John Kennedy, whose weak hitting has prevented him from fulfilling the team's wishes for a third baseman, now is free to move to short.

With Lefebvre, a .274 hitter last season, and Hunt, a .288 batter, providing offensive punch in the infield, the Dodgers might be able to afford carrying a .201 hitter of Kennedy's fielding quality.

That would fill the shortstop spot that would be vacant if the Dodgers completed a trade for Wills, who has fallen from favor since leaving the club early in its tour of Japan.

Wills, in turn, could fill part of the gaping hole in the left side of the Yankee infield, teaming with rookie Bobby Murcer as shortstop-third base combination.

General Manager Lee MacPhail said:

"We're still interested in talking to the Dodgers about Wills. They've got one more infielder (Hunt), and we've got one less."

The main problem the Yankees had in seeking Wills was meeting the Dodgers' desire for a shortstop.

"This trade doesn't change anything about the Wills' situation," said Buzzie Bavasi, the Dodger general manager, after the Hunt deal. "We still want a shortstop in return. That is mandatory."

Davis won the National League batting titles in 1962 and 1963 with .346 and .326 averages. But he broke his right ankle early in 1965 and hasn't performed to the Dodgers' satisfaction.

The 27-year-old outfielder batted .313 this past season but drove in only 27 runs in 313 at-bats.

Griffith hit .067 in 22 games with the Dodgers early in season, then batted .278 in 64 games at Spokane of the Pacific Coast League. Hickman, the last of the original Mets, batted .238 this past year.

The Yankees were pleased to get Robinson, who batted .312 with 20 homers and 79 RBI in the International League last season.

S-C Tigers To Face California

Facing their fourth basketball contest of the season, the Smith-Cotton varsity Tigers will meet the California Pintos' top five this Friday at 8 p.m. in California.

The Pintos have a 3-1 record so far this season to Sedalia's 1 - 2 showing, but the Californians placed below the Bengals in the Boonville Turkey Tourney over the Thanksgiving holiday weekend. At the Turkey Tourney, Sedalia defeated Fayette but lost to Columbia Hickman and to Moberly.

Head Tiger coach Paul Schwartz stated that since both his squad and the California squad had an opportunity to view each other at the Turkey Tournament, they both have some knowledge of each other's court strategies. Sedalia's men are looking for a quick, good-shooting team and they now hope to pin the Pintos down.

Schwartz said that the tentative starting lineup for his Tigers will be seniors Jim Whitney, Larry Bell, David Rotermund, and Dick Postels, and George Williams, a junior.

Prior to the varsity clash, the Smith - Cotton Junior Varsity cagers under the direction of Coach Ted Brown will take on the Pinto's "B" squad at 6:30 p.m. at California also.

After Friday night's game, the next Tiger cage battle will be in Kansas City against K.C. Manual High School the following weekend.

The Ox Beats Bob Giegel In Main Event

The Ox beat Bob Giegel in the feature event of the wrestling show of Pettis County Post No. 16, American Legion, Tuesday night, in an event that saw just about everything happen. After the event, The Viking picked The Ox to team with him in a team match to meet Giegel and Bob Brown anywhere, anytime.

The Ox for more than ten minutes put a head lock on Giegel from time to time and finally ended up ossing Giegel into the ropes and as he bounced back The Ox grabbed him up and put a bear hug on which squeezed him in a fall for him. It was 16 minutes and 30 seconds for the fall. In the second period Giegel was able to beat The Ox down and threw him to the mat, then climbed the ropes and jumped on to the big 290-pound wrestler twice then finished off with a press to win in seven minutes and 10 seconds.

In the rest period Giegel climbed the ropes again and Referee Richard Moody endeavored to stop the jump, got himself in the way and took the full blow from Giegel. It was too much for Moody and he was helped from the ring, Gust Karras asked The Viking to finish the event as referee. As the bell rang to start the period Viking began counting and Giegel tried to get to The Ox before he got in the ring and Viking kept him back. In the ring The Ox pounded on Giegel and finally got a press to win in one minute and 40 seconds.

Brown had slipped down to ring side to give his "Buddy" in team events some help and they tangled with The Viking and finally Ox came to himself, grabbed Brown and Viking grabbed Giegel and no crash came.

Viking issued a challenge at ring side made the talk and handed The Ox the "mike" who smiled and said "Thank You" pleasing the ringsiders to no end.

In the opening event Jack Donovan, Hollywood, was declared the winner of the match with Lee "Bulldog" Henning after eight minutes and 30 seconds. Henning was counted out of the ring giving the fall to Donovan.

Rickey Hunter, San Francisco, Calif., won over Tor Kamata in a one-fall event after 15 minutes and 40 seconds of their 20-minute time limit event. He used a step-over leg lock.

The semi-main event between Bob Brown and The Viking was a rough affair which finally went to the blonde Norwegian. Brown took the opening fall in 13 minutes and 40 seconds using a body slam and press. The second fall was won by Viking in three minutes after a series of kicks and press. The third fall finished after the Vinking restored to his "jabs" and a press, after five minutes and 20 seconds.

Fans crowded Gust Karras, promoter, asikng the team event of Viking-Ox against Giegel and Brown be held here. He indicated he would try and get the four to meet in the feature event next week, but made no definite promise.

Free On Appeal Bond After Riot Conviction

SELMA, Ala. (AP) — Stokely Carmichael, head of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, and a committee field secretary, William S. House, are free on $300 appeal bonds today after conviction on charges of inciting to riot.

The two were fined $100 each plus costs Tuesday by Judge Edgar Russell in City Recorders Court. Russell also sentenced Carmichael to 60 days of hard labor and House to 30 days. Both cases were appealed.

The trial had been continued by the judge from the Nov. 22 original trial date. Carmichael failed to appear in court and House asked that his case be continued until he could secure a lawyer. Thomas Taylor, another member of the trio when they were arrested Nov. 5, was tried Nov. 22 and fined $60 for blocking traffic and resisting arrest.

House, Taylor and Carmichael were arrested when they took a sound truck into a predominantly Negro neighborhood in Selma on Nov. 5.

Baker Edges Valley 52-51 In Cage Game

MARSHALL, Mo. (AP)—Baker whittled away at an eight-point halftime deficit and edged Missouri Valley 52-51 for its third straight basketball setback this season Tuesday night.

Four Missouri Valley starters sat out the game for disciplinary reasons. They failed to attend practice over the Thanksgiving Holiday. Baker lost a forward, McArthur Hall, on fouls with seven minutes to go but held on.

Ron Koch missed a field goal with six seconds to go that would have won the game for Missouri Valley. It was the last shot before the buzzer.

NBA Hopes To Finish Its Work

NEW YORK (AP) — The National Football League expects to finish its realignment today and get on to the business of setting the site and date of the Super Bowl game with the American Football League champions.

Pete Rozelle, commissioner of pro football, kept the owners at work until nearly midnight Tuesday, trying to hammer out an agreement on realignment. The league spent all day Monday and Tuesday working on the problem.

The big rub came in lining up the four-club divisions of the eight-team Eastern Conference because six different teams wanted to call the New York Giants their traditional rivals. Although the Giants have fallen on evil times, they still sell out Yankee Stadium every Sunday and a New York game is considered important to many clubs.

It still had not been determined whether the New Orleans franchise would go into the Western or Eastern Conference.

Rozelle said the realignment would not change the present make-up of the two conferences, except for the addition of New Orleans to one group. The Western unit has first pick of New Orleans or Atlanta. It was the make-up of the two four-club subdivisions of each conference that caused all the problems.

Traditional rivalry, weather, baseball park conflict and the strength and weakness of the teams involved were factors.

When they get around to the Super Bowl game, the owners of the NFL and AFL, meeting in separate sessions, are expected to settle on Sunday, Jan. 15 at the Los Angeles Coliseum. This will involve reshuffling other dates and will result in both the NFL and AFL title games being played on the same weekend, possibly on the same day.

Six Big 8 Teams Open Cage Season

By JIM VAN VALKENBURG
Associated Press Sports Writer

Six Big Eight basketball teams, headed by defending champion Kansas, will open the season Thursday night. If you believe the coaches, it could be the tightest title race ever.

The coaches say the league has more good teams than ever before and their estimates run from six to eight teams. A stiff outside schedule will furnish a strong test heading into the Big Eight holiday tournament at Kansas City Dec. 27-30.

Minnesota at Kansas State and TCU at Oklahoma are the only home court contests on the opening night schedule. Kansas plays at Arkansas, Colorado at Texas Tech, Iowa State at State College of Iowa and Oklahoma State faces Creighton in Oklahoma City, in other games.

Nebraska, runner-up last year with a ball-stealing full-court press and generally the No. 1 choice this year with a veteran club, opens Friday night in Lincoln against Oregon. Missouri opens with Arkansas Saturday night in Columbia.

Here is a team-by team rundown on prospects:

NEBRASKA — Joe Cipriano has four starters back, with 6-5 Tom Baack, a 15.4 scorer, 6-4 Nate Branch at 13.5, 6-3 Stuart Lantz 12.2 and 6-5 Willie Campbell, 8.8. But the coach notes he lacks the big man traditional for title teams in this league. The loss of Fred Hare, an 8.2 scorer, hurts depth. Jim Damm, a fiery 6-2 guard, is the other likely starter.

KANSAS — Ted Owens says veterans like 6-6 Rodger Bohnenstiehl, 6-3 Jo Jo White and 6-7 Ron Franz must improve for a Jayhawks title shot. But they are an excellent nucleus. Vernon Vanoy, 6-8 and 240, is the best rookie, but Phil Harmon, 6-4, may start also if his knee mends, and 6-5 Bruce Sloan is another prime sophomore prospect.

KANSAS STATE—Tex Winter likely will go with veteran lineup of 6-7 Earl Seyfert, 6-4 Galen Frick, 6-10 Roy Smith, 6-1 Dennis Berkholtz and 5-11 Bob George and shoot for a winning December. Juco transfer Ray Willis, 6-1 is a tremendous jumper and has all the moves. Nick Pino, 7-1, will be a potent spot player. He is a fine shooter.

IOWA STATE — Glen Anderson has a big front line with 6-9 Rual Duarte, 6-5 Dave Fleming and 6-8 Don Smith, 220 and the league's rebound champ. John McGonigle heads the backline with juco transfer Jim Hamberlain, 6-1, and sophomore Tom Kreamer, 6-5, expected to provide important help.

COLORADO — Sox Walseth says the return of Lynn Baker and Pat Frinks, knee cases last year gives him 10 players with experience, a plus factor. On the minus side, he is overloaded with backliners. He has 6-5 Bob Bauers, 6-8 Ted Erfert, 6-7 Steve Rowe and 6-7 Kermit McMurry up front.

OKLAHOMA — Bob Stevens has two 400-point scorers back in 6-8 Don Sidle and 6-3 Willie Rogers, plus a 10.1 scorer, skinny 6-4 Jim Johnson. Sophomores like 6-5 Landy Watson and 6-10 Jim Heitz have to come through and veteran Terry Due, 6-3, is counted on for needed leadership.

MISSOURI — Bob Vanatta may produce the surprise club of the Big Eight, with Ron Coleman, a 21-point scorer, getting some real help from rookies like 7-foot Booker Brown and juco transfers like 6-7 Eugene Jones and 6-5 Tom Johnson. He has the talent but jelling it will take some time.

OKLAHOMA STATE — Henry Iba played mostly sophomores last year. This year he has one senior, 6-7 Jim Feamster, an 11.8 scorer, and another excellent rookie crop headed by 6-9 Charles Savell, 6-5 Joe Smith, 6-4 Kenneth O'Neal and 6-6, 230-pound Mike Tate. Look out for the Ibas in 1968-69.

Pintos Take Another Cage Win, 72-41

Sporting a 4-1 season mark, the California Pintos completely swamped Fulton, 72-41, in a non-conference clash at California Tuesday night.

The Pintos took control of the contest in the first quarter and many California players got to see action in the games. Although Fulton managed to pull out of their slump somewhat in the second half, they could not push through enough points for a win.

Earl Englebrecht gained top scoring honors for California with 18 hits. High for Fulton was Dan Baysinger with 9.

In the "B" contest, the Pintos emerged victorious, 49-32. Kenney Kuester boosted California's effort with 12 hits. High for Fulton was Gilbeath with 14.

California will meet the Smith Cotton Tigers in a non-conference duel at California Friday night.

Score by quarters:

California	16	24	19	13	—72
Fulton	7	5	15	14	—41

Individual scoring: California —Earl Englebrecht, 18; Larry Carpenter, 14; John Hill, 13; Dennis Althoff, 10; Fred Bloch, 5; Roger Kueffer, 4; Carl Johnson, 3; Allen Marr, 2; Kent Sullins, 2; Kenny Kuester, 1. Fulton — Dan Baysinger, 9; Arnold McBride, 3; Darrell Hanslon, 6; Tom Dunlap, 4; Clyde Fair, 2; Ernest Reese, 4; Homer Butler, 5; Mike Pemberton, 2; Stan Schmid, 4; Jay Grimes, 4.

BRIDGETOWN, Barbados (AP) — The Western Hemisphere's smallest nation was born last midnight as the Union Jack was lowered in the island colony Britain has ruled for 361 years and the royal blue and gold flag of independent Barbados was raised in its place.

A burst of fireworks, cheers from thousands of citizens and guests and an unscheduled 10-second meteor across the sky marked the beginning of the new member of the British Commonwealth.

The West Indies island has a population of 245,000 crowded into 166 square miles of land and is located north of Trinidad.

SEOUL, South Korea (AP) — South Korea's chief of naval operations today ordered better protection of South Korean fishing fleets following the seizure of a South Korean boat and its crew by four North Korean gunboats.

CANBERRA, Australia (AP) — Yugoslav migrant Nedeljko Gajic, 26, was ordered today to stand trial for carrying a loaded rifle with intent to murder Prime Minister Harold E. Holt.

Gajic, a laborer, was carrying a sawed-off .22 rifle and two magazines of bullets in a briefcase when he was arrested Nov. 23, police said. He had a picture of Holt in his wallet.

MADRID (AP) — For the first time in Spanish history a wife is going to be an income tax deduction.

The Cabinet approved a new personal income tax law Tuesday which included a deduction of 40,000 pesetas — $666.66 — a year for a wife. The deduction for each child was increased from 10,000 pesetas to 40,000.

Says Efforts Well In Viet Nam War

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — U.S. efforts in Viet Nam, both military and civil, are proceeding well, Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor says, but he adds it may be years before we can withdraw.

On the military front, Taylor former ambassador to South Viet Nam, told 300 persons at Agness Scott College Tuesday night that enemy losses this year have been estimated at 150,000 from all causes.

Taylor, former chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and now a special consultant to the President, said the United States entered the conflict because it has an "historic propensity to go to the aid of any country in trouble," because it was obligated under the SEATO treaty, and because there are great stakes involved in Communist - sponsored wars of national liberation.

Doing Well After Freakish Birth

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Michele Fillingham was born with her abdominal organs exposed. She had her first operation when she was three hours old. Within a week, she had three more operations.

For 10 days, Michele didn't eat.

Now, 17 days old, she is eating just like any healthy baby.

The surgery performed on her at Miami's Variety Children's Hospital was one of the first of its kind in the South.

Michele was born Nov. 14 with most of her abdominal wall missing.

The cause is not known. About four babies with similar defects are seen each year at the hospital.

A hospital pediatric surgeon saw that the hole could not be closed and used a new method.

"If the organs had been forced inside, the diaphragm would have been pushed up, damaging the breathing apparatus," he said.

During her first six days of life, surgeons covered her abdomen with surgical plastic and removed it bit by bit in four separate operations until the infant's own skin would be stretched and grafted to cover the opening.

After being fed intravenously to avoid distending her abdomen, Michele went on a regular diet a week ago.

She is scheduled to go home Saturday to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fillingham. Eagerly awaiting her arrival are her three brothers and sisters, Brian, 8; Antoinette, 6, and Robert, 4.

Chamberlain Sees Drop In Scoring

NEW YORK (AP) — Presto! Like magic. Wilt Chamberlain can be transformed from the greatest shot maker in National Basketball Association history into one of the worst.

All it takes is a whack on the wrist.

That's when they put the Philadelphia 76ers star a measly 15 feet in front of the basket, everyone stands back and they let him shoot. It's a free throw, but Wilt abhors charity.

The big guy, who has scored more NBA points than any other player on shots from similar distances with players hanging all over him, missed free throws about 45 per cent of the time in his first seven years in the NBA.

But this season is his worst yet.

The 7-foot-1 center has been hitting about 64 per cent from the field, but an incredibly low 38 per cent from the free throw line.

He's tried everything, said Coach Alex Hannum of the 76ers. "He's shot underhand, overhand, one-handed and from one side of the free throw line.

"I tried to help him when we were with San Francisco, but it didn't go. It's a psychological thing that Wilt will have to work out himself."

"I gave myself about 15 games to experiment, but it just didn't work out," Chamberlain said. "I've just got a mental block or something."

The experimenting dropped Wilt's free throw inaccuracy before he returned to his underhand shot and began improving.

Picture Man Dies After Fame Career

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Frank E. (Pappy) Noel, Associated Press photographer who earned the Pulitzer Prize in a career that spanned four continents, died Tuesday night after a long illness. He was 61.

Noel succumbed to a stroke almost two months after entering J. Hillis Miller Medical Center. He underwent brain surgery shortly after the stroke.

Pappy won a Pulitzer Prize in 1942 with a dramatic lifeboat picture of a Lascar seaman begging for water. The shot was taken as Noel drifted in a lifeboat in the Indian Ocean after his ship had been torpedoed as he fled the surrender of Singapore.

Noel had a knack for being where the action was. He was in Southeast Asia on a round-the-world photographic assignment when the Japanese attacked Pearl Habor.

He stayed to cover the Malayan jungle campaign in words and front-page pictures.

He later covered the war in Burma and India. After the war he was assigned to the Mediterranean area where he spent four years watching the Trans-Jordan conflict from behind his camera.

Noel was registered at the King David Hotel in Jerusalem in 1948 when a terrorist's bomb destroyed his equipment and personal effects. But Noel was at the front taking pictures.

His next assignment took him to Berlin where he watched the cold war tension develop. The Korean War erupted and he was on the front lines a month later, after volunteering by cable to New York.

Shortly after his arrival, Noel was trapped with a Marine outfit near the Changjin Reservoir. The Marines fought their way free and Pappy's pictures showed the action exclusively in newspapers around the globe.

The Marines commended him in a letter to New York and said he "personally risked his life many times" to get his pictures.

He continued to photograph front line action for two more months, scoring repeated beats with his graphic account of the war. Then he was captured while attempting to get help for a trapped motor convoy.

Pappy didn't let confinement in a prison camp prevent him from recording the war. A camera was smuggled to him by AP correspondents covering the truce talks and he managed to sneak out photos of captured United Nations forces.

Noel, a native of Dalhart, Tex., embarked on his career 41 years ago with the Chicago Daily News.

Before joining AP in 1937, Pappy covered the Mexican revolution as a freelancer. He also served as an aerial photography instructor for the Army, and was employed by the Washington Post, Wichita Eagle, Kansas City Star and Oklahoma City News.

After his release from the Korean prison, Noel returned to New York. He was sent to Tampa in 1958 and finished his career in Tallahassee, retiring last May 14.

He is survived by his widow, Evelyn G. Noel. Funeral arrangements were pending.

Expect Britain To Ask UN For Sanctions

LONDON (AP) — The British government plans to ask the United Nations this weekend for compulsory economic sanctions against Rhodesia if Prime Minister Ian Smith doesn't come to terms by then, government sources reported.

The sources said Prime Minister Harold Wilson apparently hopes the threat of such a request to the Security Council will prompt Smith to accept a settlement of the year-old rebellion by the African territory's white minority.

Wilson won Cabinet approval of the request Tuesday and told the House of Commons the U.N. action would be in effect before Christmas. U.N. approval of sanctions is considered certain since the General Assembly earlier this month voted overwhelmingly for Britain to use force, if necessary, to end the rebellion.

Sources said the U.N. sanctions would include:

— An oil embargo against Rhodesia, but with enforcement confined to the Portuguese East African territory of Mozambique. African, Asian and Communist countries are expected to demand South Africa be included.

— Outlawing the purchase of Rhodesian tobacco, sugar, chrome, asbestos and pig iron and banning the sale of heavy machinery to Rhodesia.

The British concede that sanctions they imposed against Rhodesia last year have largely been thwarted by South African financial and oil aid.

First Human Case Of Hoof-Mouth Disease

LONDON (AP) — Farmworker Bob Brewis roared with laughter when the doctor told him he was Britain's first recorded case of a human being with foot and mouth disease.

"My only worry was that I might have to be destroyed," cracked burly Bob.

Brewis, 34, a bachelor, was working on his brother's farm at Yetlington in Northumberland four months ago when he contracted the virus that kills cattle.

An epidemic of foot and mouth disease was raging in the northern county. Nearly 45,000 sheep, cattle and pigs had to be shot.

"I felt groggy one day and thought I was going to get a dose of flu," Brewis said Tuesday.

"The doctor examined me and saw some blisters on my hands and mouth. I thought he was joking when he said I might have the cattle trouble. We both had a good laugh.

"I was banged into a hospital at Newcastle for a week but there was nothing much the matter with me. It just seemed funny."

Tests made at the hospital were forwarded to the Ministry of Agriculture's Animal Disease Research Center.

"The samples we were sent unmistakably revealed foot and mouth," Colin Edwards, secretary of the research center, said Tuesday night.

"It was the first case positively known of a human being in Britain catching the disease. Our records go back more than 40 years."

Experts at the center said they had heard reports of one other case in Germany and one in Denmark.

HITCHING A RIDE home on the back of a water buffalo is part of the daily routine for this Thai farm boy. It's the custom in Thailand's northeast provinces, in the news recently because of increasing Communist subversive activity, to drive farm animals home from the rice fields and bed them down.

'Super City' Outlined By Scientists

By HOWARD BENEDICT

BOSTON (AP) — Two space scientists said today that the aerospace industry should be enlisted to solve "the burgeoning problems of our sickening cities" and presented their own idea of the "super city" of the future.

In their ideal cits, all residents would live in 100-story apartment buildings built in a circle around a vast recreational complex. There would be no automobile travel except for leaving the city, and each building would be filled with luxuries such as health and beauty resorts.

The concept was outlined in a paper presented today at the annual conference of the American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics.

The authors. Vernal M. Tyler and Carl F. Asiala Jr. of the McDonnell Aircraft Corp., St. Louis, Mo., reported their future city idea "has met with a most gratifying acceptance. And, of course, there have been detractors. All are unanimous in the feeling that something will have to be done."

They said studies show the U.S. population will increase by 30 million persons in 10 years and that 320 million will be living in urban areas 50 years from now. Traffic, they said, will be unbearable.

Why should the aerospace industry be called upon to solve the problems?

"Aerospace," their paper said, "has the largest private reservoir of scientific talent in the world. Its engineers have come up with workable solutions for almost every problem presented — no matter how difficult it might have been."

Instead of further crowding existing cities, Tyler and Asiala suggested that new ones be built from scratch. Their ideal city, called a "modular, circumferential city," might not be the perfect solution but could be a base from which to work, they said.

It would consist of 24 high-rise apartments in a double circle around the rim of the wheel-shaped city. It would house 250,000 persons, with parking on the lower floors, low-cost housing just above and the most expensive housing at the top of the 100-story structures.

Commercial areas, schools, theaters and government offices would be located throughout the city would be by automated monorail, subway and moving sidewalk.

The one-mile diameter center of the city would have bicycle paths, golf courses, parks, streams and lakes — and no automobiles.

Government Control For The Family

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Family planning is as much a government responsibility as it is a personal one, a Washington spokesman told a regional health and welfare meeting Tuesday.

"Today we no longer need to speak in whispers," said Dr. Milo D. Leavitt Jr. "We are meeting not to debate government responsibility, but to meet that responsibility."

Dr. Leavitt, deputy secretary of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, addressed a seven-state conference sponsored by the department and attended by more than 300 social workers.

He described federal grants available for family planning services and birth control information and training, particularly for impoverished mothers.

Communities, states, groups and local health and welfare authorities should see to it that the federal aid is disbursed where it is needed, he said.

"Conception control is a basic human right," Dr. Leavitt said. "We shall guarantee freedom from coercion of mind or conscience. There shall be freedom of choice of method as that individuals can choose as they wish.

"We have five million indigent women who desire family planning aid, but only a half million now receive such aid. Of $40 billion a year, public and private, that we spend on health services, research and education, only a small fraction has gone into family planning.

"Economic and social inequities and higher rates of birth among low-income families are challenging welfare agencies throughout the land."

Private physicians, consumers volunteer health agencies and medical centers all have a role in federal planned parenthood programs, Dr. Leavitt concluded, "with the government as a partner."

Another speaker, Dr. Kermit E. Krantz, chief of obstetrics at the University of Kansas Medical Center, said birth control was the only solution to the world crisis of overpopulation.

"No longer can the physician and the educator deny his responsibility for leadership in this crisis," Dr. Krantz said. "There is no conflict in a moral sense to this problem. There no longer should be a dichotomy between our religious groups.

"It seems incongruous that our nation so well endowed and so grateful for its heritage should deny that this problem exists."

Dr. N. J. Demerath of Washington University at St. Louis called for active participation by the poor in parental planning.

It is they, he said, "who will benefit most from breaking the cycle of poverty and despair."

Civic Council Meets

The Houstonia Civic Council met at the school building on Tuesday evening, Nov. 15, with seven present.

Mrs. J. C. Higgins, president, called the meeting to order and the group joined in the Lord's Prayer. A report was given on the rummage sale and fixing the sign board at the southwest entrance and painting the tables and benches at Howard Park.

A dinner is planned for the first of January.

The public is invited and everyone is to bring a covered dish.

Motherly Types For U.S. Troops?

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) —Would American servicemen in Viet Nam like to be visited by motherly types as well as shapely chicks?

Character actress Lilia Skala thinks so, but she can't convince the committee that sends entertainers to the war zone.

The Viennese-born Miss Skala, an American resident since the Nazi takeover of Austria, thought of going to Viet Nam when she read of how movies are shown outdoors to troops at Army bases.

"I thought perhaps I could show 'Lilies of the Field' to them," said the actress, whose portrayal of the stern mother superior in the film won her an Academy nomination. "It is a very soothing film and that in itself would be helpful. Afterwards I could sing some songs — I have taken lessons for years.

"But better yet, I would just talk to the boys and answer any questions they might have about the making of the movie. I have no illusions about myself as an entertainer; I know the boys would rather have Ann-Margret. But I think I could be of help in talking to the boys, perhaps telling them about my own two sons who were in the last war.

"Also, I could take names and telephone numbers of their wives and mothers, whom I would call when I got back here. That would certainly be of comfort."

Miss Skala made her proposal to the Hollywood Overseas Committee which books the Viet Nam trips. She was told in a polite way that the committee sees a greater need for entertainers who can sing and dance, preferably young ones.

She won't be discouraged.

"Every human being finds himself under great pressure," she reasons, "and he has the desire to speak of it and have someone listen with visible interest. Sometimes just speaking out clarifies our thought. I'm sure I could be of service if I could go to Viet Nam and just listen to what those boys have to say."

Miss Skala is now making a feature film for television, "Ironside," in which she appears with Raymond Burr. Learning that he had made three trips to Viet Nam, she told him of her desire to go. "Come with me next time," he suggested, and she accepted eagerly.

U. S. Planners Think

Mekong Delta Is Ugliest Place In South Viet Nam

By PETER ARNETT

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — South Viet Nam's Mekong River delta looks like an Oriental picture postcard land.

But to U.S. military planners, the lush delta is the ugliest part of Viet Nam, a place to be avoided unless there is no other choice.

There is no other choice now. The beautiful delta might well be where the ugliest chapter of the Viet Nam war is written for the United States.

The problem in the Mekong Delta is that there are too many people, an estimated 7 million clustered along the myriad estuaries of the Mekong River that break out like veins across the countryside.

An aggressive American military stance among these millions might label the U.S. forces a colonialist army, a tag avoided up to now because American forces have been deployed where there are fewer people and more room to fight the war.

The fantastic firepower of American artillery pieces and fighter bombers that has meant the difference between defeat and victory in many battles to the north could wreak havoc among the delta's crowded civilian population.

American troops will find the enemy harder to identify in the delta than anywhere else in the country.

U.S. infantrymen will soon move into the delta because the stalemate there between Communist forces and the Vietnamese army threatens to negate the hard-won American military gains to the north in War Zone C, the central plateau, the highlands and the northern coast.

The Viet Congs extensive delta organization continues to feed large quantities of men, supplies and money to units further north.

According to current American thinking, two American infantry brigades will move south initially.

But a really effective U.S. military deployment into the region would require a full infantry division, with supporting units, at an initial cost of at least a billion dollars.

Anything less than that effort, according to the best informed American and Vietnamese sources, would result in a mere picking at the edges of the problem, without gaining any lasting change.

Based on the estimated cost of the Viet Nam war $25 billion in the current fiscal year, the billion-dollar expense sheet for a divisional move into the delta is realistic and might even be low, the best informed U.S. sources say. If the American effort grows larger, the costs would rise proportionately, they say.

Once American troops enter the delta they will face countless months of bitterly frustrating war. Their patience will be strained and endurance tested to a degree not yet encountered in Viet Nam.

The delta war prospects are bleak, which accounts for the reluctance of U.S. planners to make any southern move before this time.

Years of war have taught the Viet Cong every aspect of guerrilla war. The bedraggled farmer in black pajamas and straw hat stealthily laying ambush to an unwary government troop column is not a cliche in the delta. Hardcore enemy troops rarely wear uniforms, and no North Vietnamese regulars have been encountered south of the Saigon area.

The delta battalions know every inch of the countryside they fight upon, splitting into squads and using even public buses between villages, their weapons hidden among vegetable bags. Deployed across a province, one battalion can strike at a score of places and reassemble next afternoon.

In opposition to American troops in the delta will be 22 well-trained Viet Cong battalions armed with recoilless rifles, heavy machine guns and light automatic weapons. In addition, there is a large guerrilla force, bringing the enemy's delta force up to an estimated strength of 85,000 armed men.

This force could be greatly increased if the Communists decide to seriously oppose a southern U.S. move. Many battalions recruited in the delta are now fighting in northern areas. They could be moved back south.

American infantrymen will have to learn the facts of delta life the hard way. Moving chest deep in slime, feet tangling in mangrove roots, ammunition belts corroding, uniforms and boots rotting in a week, these things have to be lived to be learned.

Diet Drug Is Out, One Doctor Claims

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — A drug to help you lose weight? Forget it, says a New York doctor.

Appetite-suppressing drugs will, if depended on too much, doom any effort to curb obesity, said Dr. S.K. Fineberg of New York Medical College. He summarized his findings from studies of the drugs in an exhibit Monday at the annual clinical convention of the American Medical Association.

Vocabulary Strained For Appreciative Expressions

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Now that Santa Claus is on the horizon, it is time for a quick brush-up on our Christmas double talk.

There is no other season of the year that puts so great a strain on our vocabulary of appreciation and good will.

Double talk, you will remember, is the art of camouflaging a real meaning or a true feeling.

Here are a few tested samples of yuletide double talk that should get you by handily.

"Of course, it's the spirit of the thing that counts." But I never realized they made diamonds quite that small.

"Yes, I'm Santa Claus, little girl." Who do you think I look like in this get-up —Charles de Gaulle or Ho Chi Minh?

"Are you sure you've been a good little boy?" This little brat could cause trouble even in a straitjacket.

"Sure I been a good boy, Santa." They wouldn't let this fat fraud give me a lie detector test, would they?

"Tell me what you really want for Christmas, darling." My friendly neighborhood loan shark will probably die laughing when I tell him what I want to borrow the money for.

"Oh, just anything will do for little old me." I'll be lucky to get anything at all from little old cheapskate you.

"Wasn't it nice of them to remember to send us a Christmas card?" What a bother. Now I'll have to mail them a New Year's card.

"We're featuring this perfume at a pre-Christmas price of $25 an ounce." After Christmas we sell it as mouth wash at a dollar a pound.

"This is just a small token of appreciation, George, for all the services you've performed for our family during the past year. 'Why it is, just because we live in an apartment, we have to pay blackmail to this bum?

"Could you help me find a really unusual gift that would surprise my wife?" Perhaps a sequined claymore mine, or a fur-covered booby trap.

"Gee, boss, I know the rest of the staff joins me in thanking you for that unexpected Christmas bonus." Now we can all buy a one-ounce larger turkey for dinner.

"Just what I wanted — a necktie." I need some kind of rag to polish the car with.

"Christmas always makes me feel so sad." Maybe a couple more of these bourbon old-fashioneds will cheer me up.

"Daddy, I can't find one of my stockings to hang by the chimney. Can't I hang up one of yours instead?" Yours will hold ever so much more.

"Yes, Virginia, there's a Santa Claus." But the old bubble-heart has been spending so much of the year with us lately that he might as well put a "for rent" sign on the North Pole.

Operation Cracks Old VC Hideout

LONG BINH, South Viet Nam (AP) — Operation Attleboro, the biggest U.S. action of the Viet Nam war, cracked open one of the toughest and oldest of the Viet Cong's strongholds.

That is the judgment of Maj. Gen. Fred C. Weyand, who directed the 43-day operation involving some 25,000 American soldiers in the tangled jungles of Tay Ninh Province northwest of Saigon.

"We started the end of War Zone C as a sanctuary for the VC," Weyand said in an interview at his headquarters here.

"War Zone C will never be the same."

The Communists have controlled the area stretching to the Cambodian border for 20 years or more.

The general did not claim that the Viet Cong's hold on Zone C has been broken. But he predicted that "eventually, War Zone C will no longer be a base area for them."

Operation Attleboro was declared ended last Saturday with a claimed bag of more than 1,100 Communist regulars killed and nearly 2,400 tons of all-important rice captured, plus hoards of other supplies.

Weyand said he decided to call off the operation because it no longer was worth the heavy resources assigned to it — elements of two U.S. Army divisions, parts of two brigades and a tank regiment.

Once the Communist command decided the American opposition was too great, Weyand said, the Viet Cong 9th Division and the 101st North Vietnamese Regiment dispersed in small groups.

The 50-year-old general said he thinks the bulk of the Communist force now is hiding out northeast of Zone C along the Cambodian border. He estimated that the tough 6,000-man 9th Division took about 20 per cent casualties.

"But the impact was much more than that," he said. "The casualties came out of its fighting edge."

Weyand was careful not to contend the 9th Division has been crippled. Some other Army generals were making such a claim halfway through Operation Attleboro. Then, the 9th launched strong local attacks Nov. 3.

In Weyand's view, the swift concentration of U.S. fighting power probably thwarted the opening of an extensive autumn offensive, possibly aimed at thrusting down into Hau Nghia Province to the west of Saigon.

"We completely fouled that up," the general said.

Reject Emblem Entries

ADDIS ABABA, Ethiopia (AP) — Foreign ministers of the Organization of African Unity have rejected more than 3,000 entries by artists from throughout the world in a competition to design an emblem for the organization. The organization has advertised for new entries. The design must reflect the African scene, image and aspiration for unity.

World News Capsules

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—India would be "hard put" to feed some of its people next January and February if regular food shipments from the United States are suspended, Food Minister Chidambaram Subramaniam told Parliament today.

Answering questions, he said the Indian government had no information about the "alleged likelihood of suspension by the United States of grain shipments to India, and as far as we are aware no such decision has been taken by the United States government."

BRIDGETOWN, Barbados (AP)—The tiny West Indies island of Barbados achieves its independence at midnight tonight, becoming the Western Hemisphere's smallest nation with only 166 square miles of land.

Most of the 400 official guests, including a U.S. delegation headed by Chief Justice Earl Warren, arrived Monday to help the islanders celebrate when the British Union Jack is replaced by the new royal blue and gold flag.

Barbados—with a population of 245,000—will be the fourth British Caribbean colony to become an independent member of the Commonwealth. The others are Jamaica, Trinidad-Tobago and Guyana.

Future Nurses See Film On Air Force Nurse

Sgt. William Watson, local Air Force recruiter, with SSgt. Robert Brazier assisting him, presented a highly interesting program Wednesday, Nov. 16, for the Smith-Cotton Future Nurses Club. A film entitled, "The Air Force Nurse," gave much information concerning a possible future in the Air Force Nurse Corps. Following the film a short question and answer period was held.

During the business meeting, substitute lists were passed out for girls working at the hospital. It was also announced that from now on, no excuse will be accepted for not working without first obtaining a substitute.

A new money making project for the club this year is the sale of toothbrushes. These were checked out to members who wished to sell them. Proceeds from the project will be put aside for a worthy cause to be determined near the end of school.

Some welcome guests at the meeting were several members of the Ladies' Medical Auxiliary. The Auxiliary members are ardent supporters of the Future Nurses Club and have done a great deal toward its growth and improvement.

Watch That Behavior Now

Do Smith-Cotton High school graduates or dropouts have a right to loiter in and around the building while school is in session or more particularly during noon intermissions?

They probably have as much right as an adult—providing they are there on some legitimate and, we might add, some respectable mission. Those who come in this manner are not going to be challenged by school officials.

It does seem a shame that reputable non-students may face the possibility of being accosted concerning their mission. If they are they should not feel insulted by queries of faculty members.

As in so many cases here is another one wherein the majority of good citizens may encounter an atmosphere of infringement of liberties just because a minority—and a small one at that—sets up a repugnant behavior pattern which on occasion has extended beyond the school corridors.

At noon-time older non-students would park in the neighborhood of Smith-Cotton and invite the girls into their hot rods. Some of the scenes once were pretty hot to passersby; not only hot but also indelicate to put it mildly.

Then, too, some unwelcome post-students developed the idea they were invulnerable to teacher discipline when they were on school property. They created disturbances and when admonished against this talked sassy and mean even challenging their elders to do something about it. Under such conditions with regular students as onlookers such disorders become intolerable.

So the school officials decided to do something about it.

Now Sedalia has an ordinance, prohibiting disturbances in public or private schools by young people who don't have any better sense, or even adults who ought to know better.

If any unadjusted psycho wants to find out from faculty members "whatcha going to do about it?" all he has to do is create a disturbance and ask the question. The police will give the answer.

For the guilty, the new ordinance provides fines of $5.00 to $100.00 or up to 90 days in the city jail, or both fine and jail.

This regulation ought to invite a moratorium on defiance of discipline or immorality either inside or outside the buildings before some legal exposure of the culprits occurs to cause the disturbers themselves to be disturbed.

Demand For Beauty

Lipstick in "real red," eye shadow from blues and greens to purple, mascara on the eye lashes as well as artificial ones, wrinkle-proof face cream, long and short hair treatments, deodorants, mouth washes etc. have skyrocketed the cosmetic industry from $1 billion in 1853 to $3.1 billion in 1966.

Who is responsible for this stupendous growth? About one-third of all cosmetic sales are to teen-age girls while teen-age boys are considered to be the prime movers behind the boom in men's toiletries. The 14-25 age group is not only the fastest growing part of our population, but they have plenty of purchasing power. The steady rise in personal income, as contrasted with the income of parents of this generation who were brought up in depression times, gives the youngsters more money for beauty accessories.

Foreign markets have grown at a very rapid pace because American cosmetics are now considered superior to all others. Some financial experts estimate that cosmetic stocks could rank as favorites in the 1966-1977 market values. However, they warn that the cosmetics field is a very competitive one and the risks for the investor may not be worth the investment. There is no doubt though that the demand for beauty keeps the economy moving.

Looking Backward

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Dr. L. S. Geiger was elected chairman of the Boy Scout Sedalia district at a meeting at Convention Hall, Liberty Park, attended by 125 persons. Louie Satorius was elected vice-chairman, Judge J. E. Smith, second vice-chairman and Lee Shannon commissioner.

FORTY YEARS AGO

The J. C. Penney Co., which has a branch store at 414 South Ohio avenue, has leased from C. E. Ilgenfritz the store room located in the Ilgenfritz building on the northwest corner of Third street and Ohio avenue, now occupied by Chasnoffs, and will take possession on May 1, 1927. Announcement was made by M. H. Shriver, local manager.

Better Not Jump

Any earthling who landed on either of the two tiny moons of the planet Mars would weigh less than an ounce because of the low surface gravity, and the slightest jump would send him soaring off into space.

Among the fish peculiar to the Aswan River, a Nile tributary, are perch which weigh up to 200 pounds, an electric catfish which can discharge 400 volts and another species which habitually swims upside down.

Washington Merry-Go-Round

McNamara Argues for Missile Parity

By DREW PEARSON and JACK ANDERSON

WASHINGTON — Whether you agree with Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara or not, you cannot escape the conclusion that he is a remarkable man. He is the first Secretary of Defense in history who has really run the Defense Department. Previous secretaries merely took orders from the Generals and Admirals, but McNamara tells them what to do. They do not tell him.

There are differences of opinion and many arguments, but this is a wholesome situation.

Right now a very significant argument is taking place inside the Pentagon between McNamara and the Generals and the Admirals with Secretary of State Rusk supporting the military. It pertains to the all-important question of whether the United States shall maintain missile superiority over the Soviet Union.

At present, the U. S. missile program aims for a total of 1,700 intercontinental ballistic missiles. They are able to hurtle the Atlantic in less than thirty minutes and could knock out all Russian cities and then some. It's estimated that the United States now has a superiority of about 3 to 1 over the Soviet Union. And Secretary McNamara argues that this is all we need. When we reach the total of 1,700 missiles he is in favor of leveling off.

However, U. S spy satellites have recently photographed more than 300 new construction sites for Russian intercontinental missiles. Previously, the Soviet Union had 300 missile sites in operation, and if 300 new sites are being built, this would make a total of 600. Even so, the Russians will still be 1 to 3 behind the United States.

USSR Parity With USA

The Joint Chiefs of Staff are inclined to view this Russian increase with alarm. But McNamara argues inside the Cabinet that, if the United States wants world peace, it has to permit the Russians to come up to parity with us. As long as the Soviet Union is below parity, there will be nervousness and a chip-on-the-shoulder attitude in the Kremlin. People who are weak make up for it by bold talk and irresponsible actions.

After World War I, for instance, Secretary of State Charles Evans Hughes negotiated a treaty whereby the United States and England settled their Naval rivalry by agreeing on battleship parity. Prior to this, American and British Navies had been 100-year-old rivals for supremacy of the high seas, dating back to the War of 1812. With the Washington Naval Treaty of 1921 agreeing on party, that rivalry ended. The treaty also saved both countries a lot of money.

Subsequently battleships became out of date and were scrapped, and it's not beyond the realm of possibility that, with technology moving as fast as it is today, missiles also may be scrapped.

The Joint Chiefs argue that the United States is safe as long as we have enough missiles so Russia will not be tempted to jump the gun and knock us out first. As of now, we have sufficient missiles to retaliate. But we would not have enough to retaliate, the Joint Chiefs argue, if both countries had missile parity.

McNamara, however, points to the tremendous strength of our Polaris submarines constantly alert off the European coast. Hiding under water, they can fire on Soviet cities at a moment's notice. While it's true that Russia has about 150 submarines that could hit American cities from offshore, the Soviet strength is nowhere near as great as ours.

Finally, the Secretary of Defense relies upon the fact that Russian people have made tremendous economic gains in recent years, understand the gruesomeness of war better than perhaps any other people in the world, having suffered 20 million casualties in the last war. The Soviet Union wants war less than any other major nation.

The debate is continuing. Secretary of State Rusk, a hawk compared to McNamara, has sided with the military.

Note — Space scientists have developed an anti-missile missile which they believe could shoot down enemy missiles in space before they re-enter the atmosphere. This would reduce the risk to the population below from the explosion and radiation resulting from the interception. The new missile must be tested, of course, before the Defense Department can be sure of its effectiveness.

Republican Gains Dampened By Wounds

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — After the Republican gains in this month's elections — in Congress and in the states — the party naturally perked up and began dreaming of the possibility of winning the presidency in 1968.

With the Democrats in a bit of disarray, with President Johnson losing popularity, and with the chance the war in Viet Nam might last two years more, Republicans began thinking big about that next election.

It could be their best chance in years. But even the sunniest among them knew that any real chance depended on melting the antagonism between the right wing and the moderate and liberal Republicans.

The opposite has just happened.

The presidential try of the right wing's hero, Sen. Barry Goldwater, was a disaster in 1964. Now Michigan's Gov. George Romney, elected to a third term this month, was the Republican front-runner in the polls.

But Romney had refused to support Goldwater in 1964 and this left a wound in the party. Without full Republican support in 1968 his prospects would look dim, even if he got the presidential nomination.

How could it be healed? By some salve, perhaps, plus a lot of political maneuvering, political conviction, and perhaps large doses of political expediency.

But with the Republican nominating convention still more than a year and a half away, the Republicans seemed to have plenty of time to doctor themselves.

Then a little more than two weeks ago Goldwater said that, while he wasn't closing the door on Romney, the Michigan governor had a lot of "homework" to do with party leaders to atone for not endorsing Goldwater in 1964.

But on the same day Romney said, "I am not interested in going back and taking a look at the past." Then this week the past caught up with both men, but hardly in a way to take the pain out of that wound of two years ago.

The New York Times published a letter Romney sent Goldwater six weeks after the 1964 election, although no one so far among the Republicans has admitted being the one who gave the Times the letter.

Goldwater accused someone of leaking it, saying "that does not serve the best interests of our party." The Romney forces denied they did it, the Goldwater forces denied they did.

Romney's letter was in response to one from Goldwater plainly expressing the latter's irritation, if not anger, over Romney's failure to endorse him.

"Where were you, George," Goldwater asked, "when the chips were down and the going was hard?"

Romney's letter was a 12-page explanation of his position and, in the process, was a complaint and a criticism of Goldwater and of extremism.

When Goldwater found out about publication of the Romney letter, he was irritated all over again. And no wonder. It implied Goldwater didn't know what was going on around him in 1964.

But perhaps the most devastating Romney criticism of Goldwater, who had often been accused of "shooting from the hip," was the complaint that Goldwater didn't read the Republican party platform in 1964.

"You were apparently leaving many vital things up to others," Romney said.

Apparently Goldwater never had been intensely interested in the platform, although that was in effect the Republican party's basis for the campaign and its bag of promises if it won.

Before the party ever tried to put the platform together Goldwater had said he didn't want the usual one — with specific promises. He said he wanted statements of principles.

Detailed platforms, he said, "are not honest with the American people."

Oswald: "It certainly does. South finds himself in a good four spade contract. Against anything but a club opening, it depends on a 3-2 trump break because South will be able to discard one club on dummy's fourth heart and wind up losing one trick each in spades, diamonds and clubs."

Jim: "The club opening makes things tougher. West's queen of clubs is allowed to hold the first trick and South wins the second with the ace. He plays the ace and king of trumps. After both opponents follow, he will lose only one trump and one diamond in addition to the club that has already gone to the defense."

Oswald: "The ordinary declarer will go right after hearts. If hearts go three times he will get his club discard but East is able to ruff the third heart and get a club trick."

Jim: "The expert declarer who sat South also went after hearts but he used a little deception. He played his ace of hearts and led the seven to dummy's king. Then he led back the jack from dummy."

Oswald: "Put yourself in East's place. Does he know that South holds the queen of hearts? Doesn't it look as if South started with a doubleton heart and intends to ruff the jack? East is likely to figure that there is no reason for him to waste his queen of trumps here."

Jim: "Right. This East disearded. South took his queen. Returned to dummy with the ace of diamonds and discarded his club on the fourth heart. The deception had succeeded."

Graduates' Attitudes Are Shock To Some Businessmen

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Moralizing too rigidly perhaps from the example of their own financial success, many businessmen have been shocked lately by the attitude of college seniors who spurn business careers.

The disaffection is mutual. Knowing that they have a choice of vocations that some of America's most successful businessmen never had, the students ask:

"What are they offering us? Money? Teaching and government service are offering more money today, too."

The entire debate is clouded in idealism, myths, romantic ambitions, cold logic and inexperience on the part of the student. On the other side are some very outworn stereotypes of what the good life is.

As the businessman views it, the student who enters the world of commerce and works hard thus assures himself of good income, of status, even security and the other benefits of corporate society.

Some students, however, believe that to go through the business mill successfully is to come out packaged in a pinstripe suit — refined and processed something like a package of breakfast cereal.

The student today, insecure as he may be, has never known the financial insecurity of previous generations. He has little with which to compare or contrast his experience. And, since times are changing so fast anyway, he cares little for old methods and less for old stories. He wants to challenge problems with newly acquired knowledge.

Several of America's most successful corporations are acutely aware of this. It is no secret either that recruiters for these companies receive a welcome from students while others are ignored.

While many companies adhere — very successfully sometimes — to a philosophy that you must stick to your last and work hard, others are innovating, experimenting, sticking their noses into obscure areas where, amazingly, they find profits. This attracts students.

While some companies complain — with or without justice — about government interference, others are profitably becoming partners with government, not just in defense areas but, for example, in running the Job Corps.

While some businessmen dutifully stick to a rigid schedule of in at 9 and out at 5, others take the 5 p.m. flight from one coast to another and return for a conference the following evening. They know no time or geographical limits.

Many of these companies and their leaders are involved in a variety of social and community projects, offering their management skills where they can be of value.

This new pattern finds corporations and their leaders more and more involved not just with profits and sales and stockholders but governmental and educational projects.

A prominent educator said here recently that an ideal of future leaders is to combine business, education and government service.

Q's and A's On Tax Matters

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q — I got a small scholarship which pays my tuition costs for one semester. Does this have to be counted as taxable income?

A — Scholarships are generally not taxable. It would be advisable to check with your District Director.

Q — Is a trip to another city for medical treatment deductible?

A — It is if the trip is primarily for, and essential to, medical care and not taken for personal reasons. The transportation costs will be deductible but not the costs of meals and lodging unless they are furnished by the hospital.

Q — My boss stopped taking out for Social Security. Why?

A — Probably because the maximum has been withheld for the year. Social Security taxes are withheld on the first $6,000 of wages paid to an employee by the employer. If you have already received that amount from one employer no more will be withheld by that employer for Social Security for the rest of 1966. However, if you work for more than one employer during the year each employer will withhold Social Security taxes on the first $6,600 of wages paid to you. If your total wages for the year from which Social Security taxes were withheld exceed the $6,600 maximum, the excess withheld may be claimed as a credit on your income tax return.

Q. — My neighbor is paying me $25 a week to look after her little girl while she is at work. Is this money taxable?

A. Yes it is. The income should be included with whatever other income you receive to determine whether your gross income was $600 or more. If you file jointly with your husband, the income has to be included with the return you file.

If you determine the nature of the services and provide them in your own home and the amount you receive from your neighbor totals $400 or more for the year, you must file a return and pay self-employment tax. That tax will help you build up retirement benefits under Social Security.

Q — I'm a salesman and need a car to cover my route. Can I deduct the purchase price of the car when I file my return?

A. — No. However, you may deduct 10 cents for every mile you used the car on your job up to 15,000 miles. If your mileage exceeds that, the additional miles traveled on business may be deducted at 7 cents a mile. Tolls, parking and similar items are also deductible. Internal Revenue Service Publication 463 explains the rules and restrictions regarding the business car mileage expense deduction.

Instead of this method of deducting your business travel expenses, you may figure the actual operating costs of your car for the year. This involves depreciation, gas and oil, insurance, repairs and other operating costs. Most taxpayers find the mileage method easier.

Pecan Yields Running Low In Kansas

CHETOPA, Kan. (AP)—Earlier prospects for a good 1966 pecan crop in southeast Kansas have fallen victim to continued dry weather. As a result, yields are generally below those of last year.

The bright spot for producers (but not for consumers) is that the price is double or more that of last year, due not only to a short crop in this area but also in major southern nut-producing states.

Dale Conard, a large pecan grower as well as processor, said his own Neosho River bottom crop is better than last year's but that this was not generally true.

The crop beyond a radius of 20 to 30 miles from Chetopa suffered greatly from unfavorable weather conditions, he said. Upland groves were hardest hit by the long dry spell and unseasonably warm weather. A late spring also was a factor in reducing the yield.

Perry L. Duncan, a Chetopa pecan buyer, said he had purchased only about one-fifth as many pecans this year as last. He described the crop as "spotty." Buying of pecans will continue for several weeks, with possibly a third of the crop yet to be harvested.

The same report came from Mrs. Charlence H. Wedding, another pecan buyer here. She said purchases would be only half of those of 1965, or less.

The prevailing price paid producers ranges from 27 to 30 cents a pound for pecans in the shell. The price at this time last year was 13 cents a pound, ranging to 17 cents.

MONEY TO BURN at the Federal Reserve. Every week thousands and thousands of dollars wind up in ashes as the Reserve banks fulfill one of their duties—destroying worn-out bills. Above, $100 packets, "canceled" first with large holes, are fed into a special furnace at the Ninth Federal Reserve Bank in Minneapolis. Right, the bills go up in expensive smoke. A bank official stands by at all times to make certain every bill burns completely. Just in case he misses, the furnace is fitted with 16 combination locks to prevent anyone later raking over the ashes. The old money isn't a total loss—paper currency burns at high temperature, helping to heat the building.

Negro Population

Greater Opportunities The Cause Of Migration

By JOSEPH R. COYNE

WASHINGTON (AP) — American Negroes are steadily moving out of the South to the North and West and, if present trends continue, the majority of Negroes will no longer be living in the old Confederacy by 1970.

In the five years between 1960 and 1965, more than two million Negroes migrated from the South, Census Bureau and Labor Department studies show. In 1960, 60 per cent of the nation's 18.85 million Negroes lived in the South. Five years later, only 53.6 per cent of the nation's 20.94 million Negroes still lived below the Mason and Dixon Line.

The Census Bureau and Labor Department studies showed that Negroes have larger families but lower incomes and less schooling than whites.

A Census Bureau study of the Negro population indicated that in general Negroes fare better economically and educationally outside the South.

But another study showed that more whites move from region to region than Negroes, whose change of address is more likely to be confined to the same state.

In its studies, the bureau didn't attempt to detail reasons why the Negro migration from the South is continuing but one official said it's basically a matter of jobs.

The large-scale exodus began during the Northern manpower shortage of World War I, the official said, and it intensified during and after World War II.

Mechanization of Southern plantations, which once employed hundreds and even thousands of Negroes, is another reason not only for the exodus to the North and West but also for the movement of the Negro from the farm to the big city in the South, itself, an official added.

Census studies noted that the largest percentage increase in Negro population came in the West, especially California.

About 8.2 per cent of the Negro population lived in the West last year — compared with 5.7 per cent in 1960. Increases in the Northeast and north central states weren't as sharp although the over-all percentages were greater.

The bureau said 17.9 per cent of the Negro population lived in the Northeast last year — compared with 16 per cent in 1960 — while 20.2 per cent lived in the north central states — compared with 18.3 pe4 cent in 1960.

The Census Bureau figures also indicate that many Negroes are not only migrating from the South but are moving westward from the Northern states as well.

The Labor Department, in assessing the economic and social position of the American Negro, said the vast majority of Negroes are city dwellers, even in the South where better than three out of every five Negroes live in urban areas.

And about half the Negroes in the six cities with the largest Negro populations — New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Detroit, Washington and Los Angeles — were born elsewhere, chiefly in the South.

A Census Bureau study of the Negro at mid-decade found that:

1. Of the 4.4 million Negro families, about half lived in the South.

2. One of every four Negro adults had completed four years of high school or some college but in the South the proportion was one out of six. It was one out of three in the North and West.

3. Negro families are larger in the South than in the North and West — 4.56 persons compared with 4.11 persons.

4. Negro families in the South have lower incomes and more children to support than Negroes in the North and West.

The Labor Department said the Negro population — about 11 per cent of the total — appears proportionately greater than it actually is, mainly because of the massive migration into the central cities, a movement accentuated by the migration of whites to the suburbs.

Actually, the department noted, the percentage of Negroes in the total population has changed little since turn of the century and the greatest change has been in location — away from the South and farms and into the metropolitan areas.

The Census Bureau, in its mobility study, said about one in four Negroes had moved at least once between March, 1964 and March, 1965, compared with the one in five ratio for whites.

Although Negroes were more mobile, their moves tended to be shorter, the bureau said. Only 16 per cent of the Negro movers went outside the county and only 9 per cent crossed state lines compared with 36 and 17 per cent respectively for whites.

Green Ridge Rebekahs Honor Noble Grands

Routine business was taken care of and various reports were given. One application for membership was read and accepted.

Floyd Egbert invited Green Ridge Rebekah Lodge to be guests at the oyster supper on Nov. 22. The Green Ridge Odd Fellows were hosts.

The members voted to send a contribution to the I.O.O.F. Home at Liberty, toward laundry equipment and they also gave a contribution for hospital equipment at the home.

It was Past Noble Grand night and eight Past Noble Grands were present. They were: Miss Nola Barrow, Mrs. Verna Palmer, Mrs. Scena Howe, Mrs. Sula Brown, Mrs. Faye Ridenour, Mrs. Marjorie Egbert, Mrs. Hilda Morgan and Mrs. LeLaine Upton. Mrs. Cleo Smith gave a short talk honoring the Past Noble Grands and Mrs. Janice Sloan presented each a gift from the Noble Grand.
